ROOSEVELT NEARS AMERICAN SHORE

Ex-President to Receive Enthusiastic Welcome in New York Today.

COLONEL TIRED, BUT HAPPY

Steamer Slowly Approaching Old Gotham Through Thick Fog—Wireless Message Received—Roosevelt Gives Plans.

By Marconi Wireless, via New York, June 17.—The Kaiserin Aguste Victoria, is slowly approaching New York through a thick fog and with her whistle blowing constantly. Theodore Roosevelt, who is a passenger, returning home after a hunt in the African jungle and a tour through portions of Europe, tired after a strenuous day spent in disposing of a portion of his voluminous correspondence, was happy tonight over the prospect of two months of quiet at Oyster Bay.

He is somewhat stouter than when he emerged from the jungle and his face is bronzed. He admits that the weeks of travel and banqueting have tired him and says he would not care to undertake a hard walk. He plans a trip to the Black Hills to visit Seth Bullock before his speech in September at the National Conservation Congress in St. Paul.

Col. Roosevelt is in the dark as to the preparations for his welcome in New York tomorrow. But Col. Roosevelt will place himself in the hands of the welcoming committee.

He thinks he has solved the problem of what shall be done with ex-Presidents. He says he has done things for himself thus far and has had a splendid time.

Message From Roosevelt.

Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, by Marconi Wireless to Siasconsett, Mass., June 17.—Former President Roosevelt on the eve of his arrival home, tonight gave out the following interview.

"I have been away a year and a quarter. While I enjoyed Africa most, I enjoyed Europe a very great deal. In fact, I fail to see how any one could have had a more interesting or pleasanter trip than I have had.

"I wish to express by very deep appreciation of the more than generous courtesy and hospitality with which I was treated by the people and the rulers of the countries through which I passed. But of course, I am very glad to get home.

"I appreciate deeply the kindliness of a multitude of friends who have asked me to speak in different places and hope they will understand that it is simply a physical impossibility for me even to consider accepting more than one in a hundred of these invitations. I shall not speak for more than two months, and then will speak first at the John Brown Celebration in Kansas City, at the Cheyenne Frntier gathering, at the Conservation Congress in St. Paul, and possibly at one or two other places.

"I shall have nothing whatever to say in the immediate future about politics and will hold no interview whatever on the subject with any one; and anything purporting to be an interview with me that may appear can be safely set down at once as an invention.

"I take this opportunity of acknowledging with the heartiest of thanks the numerous Marconigrams and letter greetings which I received in London before starting, and which it has been impossible to acknowledge. I need not say how deeply I am touched by these kind mssages, and am sure the senders will understand that my failure to answer all of them is due simply to the fact that they are so numerous that it is an absolute physical impossibility."

DUPONT AT NEWBERN.

For Naval Reserves—Getting Ready for Centennial—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., June 17.—The Dupont, one of the best equipped and fastest gunboats on the South Atlantic coast, has been assigned to this port. Capt. Thos. C. Daniels, accompanied by a picked crew from the North Carolina Naval Brigade, left yesterday for Charleston, S. C., where the boat is now located, and at which place they will take charge of the vessel and return to Newbern Sunday night. When this vessel arrives, Newbern will have three government boats located in her port.

The committee which has charge of the boat racing and river events during the approaching Bi-Centennial has offerred the following prizes:

Five-oared cutter race. One mile rowing, first prize, silver loving cup and $5 to each of the crew; 2nd prize, $2.50 to each of the crew.

Fishermen canoe rowing race, one mile, 1st prize, $15; 2nd prize, $10; 3rd prize, $5.

Lndian dug-out skiffs, paddling race, 200 yards, 1st prize, $5; 2nd, $3; 3rd, $2.

Launches, cabin over 30 feet, handicap triangular course, 1st prize, $15; 2nd, $10; 3rd, $5.

Launches, open, under 30 feet, handicap, triangular course, 1st prize, $15; 2nd, $10; 3rd, $5.

There will be an illuminated parade of water craft, at which prizes will be given to the best decorated craft.

LABOR SITUATION IS SERIOUS

n Railroads South of the Potomac and East of Mississippi—Government Maditators Begin Negotiations—Demand For Men.

Washington, June 17.—The labor situation on practically all of the railroads in the territory south of the Potomac and east of the Mississippi river, insofar as it affects their conductors and trainmen, it developed today, is serious. Craiman Knapp, of the interstate commerce claim and Dr. Charles P. Neill, Commissioner of Labor, the mediators under the Erdman Act in labor disputes involving inter-state traffic, today at the request of the roads and with the acquiescene of the employes began negotiations in an effort to settle the controversy.

The situation still is acute, notwithstanding the fact that mediation proceedings are under way. The mediators today, however, declined to make any statement in regard to the matter except to admit that application had been made for their intervention, that the matter had been taken up immediately and that the negotiations were in progress.

The demands of the men include large increases in wages and some important changes in working conditions. The employes involved are brakemen, baggagemen, flagmen and conductors, in fact all members of the train crews except that tengineers and firemen.

Negotiations between the roads and the men have been in progress for some time, but all efforts to arrive at a settlement were fruitless. It has developed tnat the trainmen took a strike vote over the entire southeastern territory and some days ago notified the companies that unless the controversy was promptly adjusted a strike would be inaugurated on all the roads conerned. An appeal for mediation thereupon was made by the roads.

TAFT CONSENTS TO REWARD.

Man Who Told of Sugar Frauds Will Get $100,000.

Washington, June 17.—Richard Parr, the customs deputy at New York who materially assisted the government in recovering over $2,000,000 in the sugar underweighing frauds is to be given a reward of $100,000.

The decision to reward Parr in the amount named was reached at a conference between President Taft and Secretary MacVeagh today. There is not money enough available in the moiety fund in the treasury from which rewards are paid to cover the amount agreed on so that unless other arrangements are made an appeal to Congress will have to be made for the necessary appropriation. That Scretary MacVeagh indicated, would not be done at this session of Congress.

Parr discovered the secret spring on the docks of the American Sugar Refining Company by which the underweighing practice was carried on. The final discoveries of fraud were made in 1907, since which time the government has been engaged in collecting the duties out of which it had been defrauded.

There were two other claimants with Parr for reward. They were Edwin I. Anderson and Charles M. Daly. Secretary MacVeagh submitted to Attorney General Wickersham the question whether he was authorized to reward the three men, but the Attorney General held that Parr only was entitled to any compensation from the moiety fund. The success of the suits to recover money must be attributed largely to Parr's work according to Secretary MacVeagh. There is also no doubt, declared the Secretary that Parr was offered large amounts of money and that he was dogged by detectives.

HOUSE PASSES REFORM RULE

Resolution Designed to Correct Legislative Abuse Almost Unanimously Adopted—Factions Stood Solid—Settlement.

Washington, June 17.—The House of Representatives which has had many days of discussion during the present session over the question of the rules of that body, today furnished the remarkable spectacle of passing, with one lone member voting in opposition, a strongly worded "reform" rule, designed to correct an acknowledged legislative abuse—the "smothering" of legislation in committee. Democrats, Republicans and "insurgents" joined hands harmoniously in adopting the rule.

Representative Rucker (Democrat), of Missouri, was the lone member who stood out against it. He assailed the new rule in vigorous language and was joined in his denunciation by Representative Sims (Democrat) of Tennessee. The latter, however, did not vote against its adoption.

Representative Champ Clark, the minority leader, supported the rule, "as a forward step in reforming the rules of the House", and asserted that he himself was the author. Representative Dalzel, of Pennsylvania, and Representative Smith, of Iowa, from among the "regular" leaders, supported it also as something which a majority of the House demanded. Representative Payne, the Republican floor leader, objected to one of its provisions, but voted for the rule.

"Insurgents" like Murdock, of Kansas; Fish, of New York, and Norris, of Nebraska, advocated adoption of the rule as "another epoch in the emancipation of the House."

The almost unanimous vote came today after three days of separate effort by Republicans, Democrats and "Insurgents" to frame a rule which they could support in a contest on the floor of the House, which all expected, but which finally ended in a peaceful settlement.

Representative Dalzel, chairman of the Committee on Rules, had the rule before the House. The measure provided for discharge of committees from the consideration of any bill and the placing of the bill upon the calendar upon a majority vote of the entire membership of the House.

Denouncing the proposed rule in vigorous language, Mr. Sims, of Tennessee, pounded his desk and shouted to the insurgents across the aisle: "Where are the fruits of your victory? Indians show me your scalps. I want to see what you will get. Nothing," he declared in dramatic tones—"nothing"—he repeated.

The rule, he declared, was defective in that it permitted the recall of a bill from a committee almost immediately after it was referred without giving time for its consideration. Such a rule he said, was absurd and would be found to work mischief.

Minority Leader Clark challenged the statement that the Democrats were following the Republican regulars or insurgents. The rule, he said had been brought forth by the Democrats.

"I introduced this rule in this House myself," he said. "The only substantial amendment to it was made by Mr. Underwood, of Alabama."

With the adoption of the rule he said there would be very little need to invoke it because its moral influence over the committee would prevent the pigeon holing of bills.

"The business of the House", he continued, "has been more orderly since the 19th of March, when the Speaker was removed from the Committee on Rules. If this rule does not work well, we will change it."

Mr. Rucker, of Missouri, declared that he would not accept such a proposition as was offered because it had the support of the Republicans.

"If you should find the Republicans steering toward heaven would you refuse to go that way?" shouted Stanley, of Kentucky, amid shouts and laughter.

"If I saw them going that way I (Continued on Page Eight.)

DETERMINED TO STOP FIGHT

Governor Will Order Out Militia if Langford-Kaufman Fight is Attempted Today—Promoter Says It Will be Pulled Off.

San Francisco, June 17.—"I still have an ace in the hole. When Langford and Kaufman appear tomorrow in the ring, sitting in the same box with District Attorney Fickert and Chief of Police Martin will be Adjutant General J. B. Lauck, commander of the State militia of California. I have the positive assurance that they (Fickert and Martin) will not permit a single round to be fought. Their promises were given to me personally; I believe and expect they will be kept. The doom of prize fighting in California has been sounded."

The ofregoing statement made to-

The foregoing statement made tomizes the latest situation of the prize fight controversy that has plunged San Francisco into a crisis bearing all the aspects of a miniature civil war.

Louis Blot, the promoter of the fight is in open insurrection against California's chief executive. Openly defying the Governor, who had ordered out two companies of militia to prevent the "ring contest" if officers refused to act, Blot declared he would hold the Kaufman and Langford affair tomorrow, even though "an army" were called on to block progress.

Ostensibly Blot stands alone, but until late today he had at least the passive support of the District Attorney and of the courts. At the eleventh hour District Attorney Fickert and Chief of Police Martin pledged their word to Attorney General Webb that they would prevent the fight. Acting on their assurance, Gov. Gillett held up his order calling out the State troops.

Still obdurate, Blot persisted in his declaration that the fight would be held as scheduled and unless he retracts from his position the outcome of his rebellion will not be determined until tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock Pacific time, when the fighters are scheduled to come together.

For a time today it appeared as though San Francisco would openly rebel against California.

Blot, every one says, cannot carry out his determination to override the governor's authority and to all intents and purposes the war is at an end.

Gov. Gillett, however, is not entirely convinced that Blot may not attempt to go on with the fight and that there may be no hitch in the police precautions to prevent the contest he has instructed Adjutant General Lauck to be at the ring side prepared for instant action.

Despite the fact that Tex Rickard positively stated early today that the

TEACHERS ADJOURN SESSION

Assembly at Asheville Elects officers, Adopts Strong Platform and Hears Notable address From Clarence H. Poe—Other Proceedings.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., June 17.—After selecting officers the North Carolina State Teachers' Assembly adjourned this afternoon. The officers are: President, Charles L. Coon, Wilson graded schools; vice president, E. C. Brooks, Trinity College; Secretary and treasurer, R. D. W. Connor, Raleigh; members of Executive Committee, Miss Mary Graham and H. B. Hall.

The report of the committee on platform was adopted, favoring the establishment of an auxiliar[illegible] in conjunction with the State Board of Education on matters pertaining to educational work, favoring a constitutional amendment changing the terms of schools from four to eight months ,the uniform selection of county superintendents and board of education, the uniform examination of teachers and the establishment of farm departments in connection with State High Schools.

Resolutions were adopted approving the honor shown the State by the selection of J. Y. Joyner as president of the National Educational Association and asking an appropriation by Congress of $75,000 for the use of the United States Bureau of Education for ten field instructors.

Clarence H. Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, made a strong address on "Adoption of Education to Rural Life." He declared the whole school system was constructed by city people for city children, to make city people and had little in it for the country boys and girls. "You have taught them all about Greek roots and Latin roots but nothing about corn roots," the courses of study included the metric system, but had nothing to tell boys how to compound feeding rations for cattle.

The average High school course did not appeal to the boys in the country, he said, because it did not meet their needs. He believed when the country schools interest pupils and give more direct returns, the problem of teachers' salary would be solved.

The Women's Association for betterment of school buildings elected the following: Mrs. W. R. Hollowey, Goldsboro, president; Mrs. C. L. Stevens, Newbern, vice president; Mrs. R. E. Little, Wadesboro, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Applewhite Killian, Newton, recording secretary.

The selection of a field agent was left to the executive committee. Mrs. Charles D. McIver is the present incumbent.

SCHR. NOREMBEGA LOST.

Capt. and Crew Taken Into New York by Steamer Mills.

New York, June 17.—The steamer Mills, bound for Newport News, Va., from Boston, put into this port this evening bringing Capt. Olsen and the crew of seven men of the three-masted schooner Norembega, with which she was in collision Thursday afternoon. Incidentally her arrival cleared up the mystery of an abandoned vessel which was reported burning last night by the Mauretania.

The collision occurred 20 miles southest of Fire Island. When the men had been taken from the Norembega the Mills tried to tow the schooner to this port but had to abandon her. She was then fired in order that the derelict might not become a menace to navigation. The Norembega was bound from Philadelphia to Calais, Me., with a cargo of coal.

DISPOSES OF RAILROAD BILL

Adoption of Conference Report on Measure Final Action of Senate. Awaits House Vote for Enactment.

Washington, June 17.—The Senate today placed its final stamp of approval on the administration railroad bill which has been pending in one stage or another almost since the beginning of the session, by adopting the report of the conference committee on that measure.

The vote came at the close of a day devoted to a fragmentary discussion of the measure and was without especial feature. The report prevailed by a large majority, the ayes being 50 and the noes 11. All of the negative votes were cast by Democrats and Senators Chamberlain, Clay, McEnery, Simmons, Stone and Taylor united with the Republicans in support of the bill.

Just before the vote was taken Senator Stone elicited a statement from Senator Elkins to the effect that no agreement had been entered into between the Republican leaders and Democratic Senators looking to the elimination of the capitalization provisions of the bill. Calling for a quorum for the expressed purpose of procuring the attendance of the Senator from West Virginia, Mr. Stone, mentioned the frequent reports to the effect that there had been such a bargain, and asked Mr. Elkin for an explicit statement on the subject. Mr. Elkins said he did not try to answer all the reports that were set on foot by the newspapers, but that he could say frankly that no such agreement ever had been made.

The motion to strike out the capitalization feature was made by a Democrat and was supported by the votes of all but one of the Senators," added Mr. Elkins.

"After that there was no necessity for a bargain and so far as I know there was none."

PROF. HARRIS ACQUITTED.

Virginia (School Teacher Tried for Murder of Editor.

Manassas, Va., June 17.—"Not guilty" was the verdict of the jury, rendered late today in the case of Prof. J. D. Harris, former principal of the Warrenton Higth School, who was tried here on the charge of having murdered W. A. Thompson, associate editor of the Warrenton Virginian, on the streets of Warrenton in April, 1901 The case went to the jury at 1:15 o'clock and the verdict was announced at 4 o'clock.

When the announcement of "not guilty" was made by the foreman of the jury, several women in the court room applauded and the accused sprang to his feet and embraced his sister who has stood faithfully by his side during the trial. Judge Thornton promptly fined those in contempt of court, but afterwards remitted the fine.

A telephone message was received here late tonight that a number of Thompson's friends had assembled at Warrenton and that they were in an angry mood as to the result of the Harris trial. It was advised that Prof. Harris should not return to Warrenton tonight. The suggestion was acted upon.

DEATH IN ANSON.

Mrs. Elizabeth Webb Passes Away at Advanced Age.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., June 17.—Mrs. Elizabeth Webb died Wednesday afternoon at the home, in Gulledge township, of her son, Mr. W. T. Webb, aged 73 years. Mrs. Webb had been in failing health some time, but had been confined to her bed only about a week. She was a woman of many virtues and will be greatly missed in the community in which she lived. Three children, Messrs. W. T. and R. L. Webb, and Mrs. J. P. Ratcliff, all of Gulledge township, survive. The burial was at Deep Creek church yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. J. Barker, pastor of Morven circuit, conducted the exercises.

GOVERNMENT AFTER COTTON POOL MEN

Patten and Several Other Speculators Indicted For Conspiracy.

SOUTHERN MILLS ARE NAMED

North and South Carolina and Georgia Mills Declared Co-Conspirators. Says Manipulating Market is Violation.

New York, June 17.—The government came out in the open today in its attempt to prove that manipulating the cotton market is against the law. James A. Patten, of Chicago, and seven lesser figures in the speculative field have been indicted, charged with conspiracy in restraint of trade under the Sherman anti-trust law.

The indictment was returned by a special Federal grand jury late this afternoon and handed up before Judge Hough, in the United States Circuit Court. Five of those indicted—Patten, Eugene B. Scales, Frank B. Hayne, William P. Brown and M. H. Rothchild—gave bail of $5,000 as required through counsel. For the other three who were neither present in court nor represented by lawyers, bench warrants were issued. They are Sydney J. Herman, Robert M. Thompson and Charles A. Kittle.

Immediately the indictment was announced there was an excited break on the New York Cotton Exchange, July and August deliveries declining about $7.50 a bale, July selling at 14.81 and August at 14.35 as against 15.12 and 14.64, at the close of business on the previous night.

The bull leaders, however, appeared to be in no manner disturbed by the government action and by their buying orders helped to rally prices during the last few minutes, July closing at 14.92 and August at 14.49 bid, or about 11 to 14 points up from the low level of the day.

Five counts are embraced in the indictment which is in blanket form and contains 2,000 words. The first count charges that the defendants unlawfully did conspire with certain corporations not herein indicted to "demand arbitrary, excessive and monopolistic prices for cotton. The firms mentioned as co-conspirators, though not included in the indictment, are as follows:

Alabama—Avondale Mills, Birmingham; Central Mills, Sylacauga; Enterprise Mills, Enterprise; Montgomery Cotton Mills, Montgomery; Prattville Cotton Mills, Prattville.

Georgia—Anchor Duck Mills, Rome; Canton Cotton Mils, Canton; Elm City Cotton Mills, LaGrange; Exposition Cotton Mills, Atlanta; Floyd Cotton Mils, Rome; Granville Hosiery Mills, Grantville; Habersham Mills, Habersham; Lawrenceville Manufacturing Company, Lawrenceville; Lois Cotton Mills, Douglasville; Milstead Manufacturing Company, Milstead; Newman Cotton Mills, Newman; Roswell Manufacturing Co., Roswell; Sibly Manufacturing Co., Augusta; Scottdale Mills, Atlanta; Trion Manufacturing Co., Trion Factory; Unity Cotton Mills, LaGrange.

North Carolina—Cannon Manufacturing Co., Concord; Henrietta Mills, Caroleen; Mecklenburg Manufacturing Co., Charlotte.

South Carolina—Aiken Manufacturing Co., Bath; Belton Mills, Belton; Brandon Mills, Greenville; Capital City Mills, Columbia; Easley Cotton Mills, Easley; Glenn-Lewery Manufacturing Co., Whitmire; Granby Cotton Mills, Columbia; Greenwood Cotton Mills, Greenwood; Grendell Mills, Greenwood; Jackson Mills, Iva; Lancaster Cotton Mills, Lancaster; Langley Manufacturing Co., Langley; Monaghan Mills, Greenville; Ninety-Six Cotton Mills, Greenwood; Olympia Cotton Mills, Columbia; Ottaray Mills, Union; Pelzer Manufacturing Co., Pelzer; Piedmont Manufacturing Co., Piedmont; Richlands Cotton Mills, Columbia; Riverside Manufacturing Co., Anderson; Saxon Mills, Spartanburg; Seminole Manufacturing Co., Clearwater; Toxaway Mills, Anderson; Union Buffalo Mills Co., Union; Williamstown Mills, Williamstown; Woodruff Cotton Mills, Woodruff; Woodside Cotton Mills, Greenville.

Describing the inside workings of the alleged conspiracy, the indictment says that the conspiratorys were to become members of and engage in an unlawful combination in the form of an agreement under which they were severally to purchase for shipment from the South to New York all the cotton not directly obsorbed by the demands of foreign and domestic spinners and manufacturers in the ordinary course of business; in other words, as much as they could purchase from day to day without seriously enhancing the price, but nevertheless, to such an extent that together they would, long before the end of the crop year, have so much cotton in their possession in the city of New York that the could, "by reason of the abnormal and artificial condition thus produced in said trade and commerce, severally demand arbitrary, excessive and monopolistic prices."

None of the "conspirators" continued the indictment, "was able to finance the deal individually, thus proving in the government's logic that "none of the defendants was or expected to be a spinner or manufactur-

"Blow, Horne; Blow!
Set the wild echoes flying;
You have reason to be proud
There ain't no use denying."
—Rooter Ravings.

Inability of the locals to connect with Walsh, the Rocky Mount mounder, for more than four hits, was responsible for a shut-out administered to the Sailors, two to nothing, yesterday afternoon at League Park. Rube Howard was on the slab for the locals and although he pitcheu his usual consistent game, yielding but six scattered hits, the break was against him and victory perched on the Rocky Mount banner.

The winning runs came in the fourth inning when Stein beat out a bunt and Schuman duplicated, Phelan then sacrificed, advancing each runner a peg and Creagan proved the Big Boy with a bingle to centre that domiciled both Stein and Schuman, being himself caught trying to stretch the hit into a two-sacker. Gastemeyer ended the trouble by going out short to first.

Gillespie, the very first man up, for the Railroaders, bingled to right but Novak was out catcher to first, Stein and Schuman whiffed. For Wilmington, Kluttz was out from the infield. Dubbs safetied to right but was forced at second by Tydeman, who was later out attempting to purloin second with Mills at bat.

In the second Phelan was safe on error of short, Creagan fouled to Mills, Gastemeyer and Phelan being retired on a fast double short to second to first. Wilmington: Mills and Doak flew to centre, Cooper out third to first.

Third—Cooney out short to first, Walsh second to first; Gillespie bingled to left and was safe at second on wild throw catcher to second with Novak at bat, he being out second to first. Novak was put out of the game for protesting the decision and Forgue was sent to short in his stead. Wilmington: Burke ethered, Kite drew a constitutional, Howard safetied to centre, Kluttz sacrificed both runners but Dubbs fouled to left, ending the hope.

The painful story of Rocky Mount's fourth has been told. For Wilmington Tydeman whiffed, Mills and Doak out short to first.

In the fifth Cooney and Walsh succumbed to Howard's twisters and Gillespie flew to first. Cooper and Burke were out from the infield and Kite fanned.

After Forgue popped to pitcher, Stein and Schuman also lay down at the mercy of "Rube" and for Wilmington Howard and Dubbs flied to second, Kluttz to right.

In the seventh Phelan was safe on error of short, Cregan forced him at second and Gastemeyer flew to left, Cregan having been caught with designs on second. Wilmington: Ty again ethered, Mills was safe on error of second, Doak and Mills being out on a pretty double short to second to first.

The eighth looked bilious when after Cooney was out third to first, Walsh ambled, Gillespie singled to right, but Forgue was out from the infield and Stein went out pitcher to first. Cooper started Wilmington's with a bingle through second, but Burke flew to centre and Kite and Cooper were out on another double short to first.

Schuman started the ninth with a swat to right, but after Phelan flew to Cooper and Creagan was up, he was caught at second while Creagan fanned. Hawkins went in to bat for Howard and was out third to first, Kluttz then drove to left for two bases and it looked like a tied score when Carroll batting for Dubbs was given life while Kluttz was being caught between second and third; Tydeman then forced Carroll at second and the tabulated score tells the rest:

PRINCETON WINS FINAL.

Defeated Yale in Decisive Game of Series in New York Yesterday.

New York, June 17.—Before one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a college baseball game, Yale went down to defeat before Princeton in American League Park today 7 to 5 in the deciding game of a series of three. Princeton played an up-hill game and her victory was due to pluck that persisted even when it semed certain the Tigers would be dragged by the tail in the dust.

Neither pitcher who began the game lasted. S. V. White, of Princeton, was relieved in the third by Woodle, after Yale had scored four times in the second inning, and Tommers, of Yale, was taken out at the end of the sixth when Princeton had scored three runs all told.

ANOTHER AERO RECORD.

Brookins Soared to Altitude of 4,503 Feet Yesterday.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 17.—Walter Brookins, in a Wright biplane, broke the world's record for altitude today when he soared to a height of 4,503 feet, according to the measurement of the altimeter. His motor stopped as he was descending and he made a glide of two miles, landing easily in a wheat field.

Brookins started at the Indianapolis Speedway, and, flying in wide circles, reached his highest altitude in 40 minutes. The machine was then but a speck in the sky, at moments lost to the view of the crowd.

Brookins landed after being in the air an hour and a half. The previous altitude record was 4,384 1-2 feet which he set at the Speedway last Monday.

Newbern, N. C., June 17.—While engaged in making up his reports last night in the office of the master mechanic of the Norfolk & Southern shops in this city, Mr. Arthur Church, secretary to the master mechanic, was shot in the left arm by an unknown party and painfully injured. The matter was reported to the police and every effort is being made to apprehend the would-be assassin. The wound, although very painful, is not considered serious.

"Grunts"

Zeroed! as it were.

Clemmons got two hits at Goldsboro.

Still hugging to third place like grim death.

Walsh had everything in the serving line.

They got it, but the going weren't no cinch.

The Kilties again rubbed it into the near-Champions.

Rocky Mount pulled off a couple of double-plays to our one.

Hawkins pinched in the 9th, but his customary bingle wasn't forthcoming.

The game had some mighty good points, but those same points stuck in us.

The Sailors' secondary battery, so to speak, attended to the local swatting.

Baseball, like life, "ain't all beer and skittles." The domestics can't win every day.

Cooper and Howard culled a single apiece; and Kluttz poked his for two moves.

Armstrong, Mullin and O'Halloran carried off the clouting honors at Fayetteville.

Dubbs made a little bobble, but we've forgotten it already. He also got a hit.

Fayetteville's new pitcher, Meyer, from Atlanta in the Southern, spoiled Wilson's hopes.

Rube fanned some six of the Railroaders, while Walsh's whiff record was almost the same.

Wilson's descent, unlike Darwin's theory, is the real thing, and not any monkey-doodle business.

The lot should hardly be able to hold the push that will hie its way parkward for the final contest.

The Railroaders made use of the turntable and then applied the kalsomine themselves this time.

Gillespie was the bright particular stellar attraction in the swatting line, tucking away a trey of singles.

Isn't old Raleigh slouching along these days. The Birdies will soon deserve the appellation of Giant Killers.

Thorpe and Brooks will probably work this afternoon. Get out and see the two mix it. And look out for flying feathers.

"When will that Tydeman stop featuring himself with the stick? It's Tydeman in every game."—Raleigh News and Observer.

Beat it to the park this aft- and see the Heap Bad Injun on the warpath. He'll be after scalplocks, although Brooks' pitching record is as yet undefiled.

The News and Observer dopist, on Cooper's tasty stop of that liner on Thursday says: "Cooper and Dubbs got in an error each. However, Cooper atoned for his by a most remarkable play."

Tidy Tydeman actually fanned twice and failed to ring up a single safety. Won't this cause consternation among the dopists? At the same time, he expects, at this writing, to be in today's game.

There seems to be an impression current that an admittance fee is charged for ladies occupying seats in the local grandstand. This is erroneous as ladies are admitted to the grandstand free.

The Wilson Times dopist in a little aviation of imagination the other day remarked: "But for the rains, however, we expected to be still father ahead." If that same Faber shover don't quit taking those sudden flights first thing he knows he'll be run over by an aeroplane.

"Barre, who was here to officiate in this series with Wilmington, left yesterday afternoon for Wilmington where he will be the indicator handler for the next three days."—Rocky Mount Record. Barre may have started here all right, but he never materialized. This arbiter assignment looks curious, anyway.

The following is quoted from the Rocky Mount Record: "If it is not raining we can play' remarked Bert Kite with reference to the game in Wilmington today (Thursday). He states that the construction of the field was such as to make it the most easily drained and dried of any on the circuit." There has been a lot of money spent by the management on the local lot, and the grounds are easily the best in the league. There is no comparison between last season's and this year's outfield, and the present magnate is to be congratulated for bringing about the good result. Improvements, of course, take coin; and gratifying patronage, and nothing else, is all that is expected from the fans and those that follow the game.

Johnson and Jeffries fight would be held in Goldfield, Nev., the sporting world is unconvinced. There is a strong lingering suspicion that Reno will be the battleground.

Rickard's announcement was made this morning on receipt of a telegram from Maurice Sullivan, a merchant of Goldfield. It contained an offer of $120,000 for the fight and Rickard without a moment's hesitation declared for Goldfield.

The promoter, however, immediately qualified his decision with the phrase "If no higher bid is received from a Nevada town."

No sooner had word of Rickard's action reached Nevada than the wires were burdened with messages f protest and entreaty from Reno and Ely. It is certain that strong guarantees back the requests that the fight be taken to Reno or Ely.

So determined was the opposition to Goldfield by the other Nevada towns that the promotor partly surrendered in the afternoon. He informed urgent petitioners in Reno and Ely that he would listen to what they had to say Sunday night in Reno. This notice was also conveyed to Goldfield. Committees from each of the three Nevada towns will be at Reno Sunday when Rickard arrives from San Francisco.

Judging from Rickard's qualification of his first decision today the meeting at Reno will be an auction at which the much desired prize will go to the highest bidder.

One of the events of the day was the denial of a petition made by Attorney General Webb to Superior Judge Van Nostrand for an injunction restraining the Kaufman and Langford fight, not on the grounds that it was the intention of Promotor Blot to hold a prize fight, but because "contest would be a public nuisance."

This petition was filed late today. The petition admitted that necessarily no plea could be made to enjoin a commission of crime that was not actual, but only averred to be pending.

Judge Van Nostrand in handing down his decision, declared the injunction could not be granted, as the defendants had not been allowed sufficient time to present their case; that the issuance of an injunction would in effect be an adjudication of the matter and that, if the breach of the peace or the law contemplated in the complaint should take place the police officers of the city and county would deal with the matter.

Following the court's decision, Gov. Gillett directed Attorney General Webb to make a final effort to persuade the city officers to aid the State in preventing the fight. A conference between the Attorney General and District Attorney Fickert brought forth the unexpected announcement that the District Attorney and the chief of police together would guarantee that tomorrow's contest would not be permitted. While en route to the Oakland station to board a train for Sacramento the Governor delivered his parting ultimatum as follows:

"This means the end of prize fighting in this State, and by this State, I mean Los Angeles as well as San Francisco. The two fights scheduled for the Southern city will not be held. I have instructed the proper authorities there to stop them. Pressure was brought to bear on me from millions of people scattered all over the country and this alone was reason enough for my interference.

"I am not worrying much now about the big fight. I am concentrating my attention on preventing the Kaufman and Langford match. I am satisfied that the promotors of the big fight have already decided to remove their match from this State. That is all I ask of them."

Blot Will Defy Orders.

San Francisco, June 17.—Louis Blot, promotor of the Kaufman-Langford fight, after a conference with his attorneys tonight announced that he would carry out the fight tomorrow as advertised and would petition for an injunction restraining the district attorney and chief of police from interferring. If the injunction is granted, the Governor's only recourse is to call out the militia.

Militia is Last Resort.

Sacramento, Cal., June 17.—"If Louis Blot does what he says he will do, I shall call out the militia. That is the only course left," said Governor Gillett when he was informed of the promotor's intention. I shall also file criminal information and complaint, charging him with a felony if he holds the fight.

Orders to Soldiers.

Monterey, Cal., June 17.—Orders to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to San Francisco with their command were received today by the officers of the fifth regiment, National Guard of California, now in Summer camp.

Commanding officers of companies H. of Haywards, G. of Alamanda, D. of San Fafael and F. of Oakland, were ordered to return to their respective headquarters from the Summer encampment and hold themselves in readiness to proceed to San Francisco tomorrow afternoon.

HOOKWORM IN THE STATE

Conference at Wrightsville Beach in Connection With State Medical Society—Widespread Movement For Its Eradication.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 17.—Dr. John A. Ferrall, assistant secretary of the State Board of Health, for the division of hook worm eradication, made public today the programme for the conference on hookwork disease to be held at Wrightsville Beach June 23rd in connection with the meeting of the State Medical Society.

Dr. Hiram Byrd, assistant State Health officer for Florida will discuss "Methods Followed in Florida in Crusade Against Hookworm Disease."

Dr. C. W. Stiles, discoverer of the hookworm, and scientific secretary of the Rockefeller Sanitary Commission, will discuss "The Value and Essentials of a Sanitary Privy." Dr. William Allen, Charlotte, is to treat "Objections to Clinical Diagnosis in Hookworm Diseases." "The Practical Means of Hookworm Diseases" will be the subject of Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health. The last feature of the conference will be "The status of the Hookworm Disease in North Carolina," by Dr. John A. Ferrall, assistant secretary for hookworm disease, State Board of Health.

It is earned that more than 600 students in North Carolina colleges have been examined for hookworm disease during the past few months and that more than one-third of them were found to be infected, these cases of infection representing 50 counties.

Over 2,000 inquiries have been sent out to physicians in the State as to the presence of hookworm in their territory. Up to the present time 350 have replied. These show that 167 have never treated hookworm disease, and 183 have. The total number of cases reported through these responses being aproximately 3,033. In ten counties of the State no cases of hookworm have been reported. There have been 243 cases of the disease in negroes reported, this running up the total reported to 3,275. It is notable that in those counties for which there are no records for the presence of hookworm it is understood that there have been no special searches for the disease. The doctors, it is said, are manifesting a cordial co-operation in the work of eradication which is planned now to cost something like $20,000 per year. There are to be for the present five physicians put in the field in as many sections of the State which will be divided into sixteen or eighteen districts. These physicians will be field agents to press the campaign for eradication, urging the gospel of sanitation and approved treatment of the disase where found.

An effort is to be made, it is learned to procure State aid for this work to supplement North Carolina's portion of the Rockefeller fund, the basis probably being some per cent of funds raised by contributions and otherwise.

WADESBORO TAXES.

Commissioners Meet and Fix Rate at Advance.

Wadesboro, N. C., June 17.—The board of town commissioners at their regular monthly meeting for June levied the following taxes for the current year: For general purposes, $1 on the $100 valuation; to pay interest on water and light bonds, seven cents on the $100; to pay interest on street bonds, three cents. This makes a total tax on property of $1.10. The tax on property last year was 95 cents. The total tax on the poll this year is $2.50, against $2.10 last year.

The $1.10 town tax, added to $1.58 1-3 levied for State, county, roads, schools and pensions, makes a total tax of $2.68 1-3 on property that persons living in the town of Wadesboro and in the Wadesboro graded school district will have to pay. The total poll tax of persons living in this district will be $6.15.

Annual mill end sale at Rehder's big store, Fourth Street bridge, starts Monday at 9 o'clock. **

SOCIETY LADIES
READ THIS

You Will Find This Letter From Mrs. Baker, of Floral, Very Interesting.

Floral, Ark.—"Until a month ago," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place, "I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was unable to do my housework. I tried Cardui, according to directions, and now I am in good health and recommend your medicine to all my friends. I gave Cardui to three of my friends to try, and they all say it helped them."

Society and household cares make nervous, weak women, who suffer great pain and misery, much of which can be avoided by taking Cardui.

Worry and overwork act on your nerves like rust on metal, and they simply go to pieces. You can't always make rusty metal bright again, and sometimes you can't get your nerves straightened out again, so better begin before the trouble goes too deep.

For half a century Cardui has been used with benefit by sick women, thousands of whom have written, telling of the good results obtained.

Doesn't this mean something to you? Benefit by others' experience. Cardui will help you. Try it.

Ask your druggist about Cardui.

Think of Last Summer--

You can remember days when the heat inside your kitchen was so great you could hardly bear it. With the right stove you would have made a better hostess. Save your health. Don't put up with the drudgery of a coal range. You can have a clean, cool, pleasant kitchen. The

WICK BLUE FLAME

does away with all drudgery of cooking. Why should you be a slave to a coal range when you can have an Oil Cook-Stove that is cheaper than coal, cleaner than coal, doesn't "smell," doesn't smoke, lights instantly, can be put out instantly, leaves no ashes, and doesn't heat the kitchen. With one of these stoves you can boil, bake or roast the most elaborate dinner. You can change from a slow to a quick fire, or the other way about, by simply turning a wick. Apply a match, and instantly the heat from an intense blue flame shoots upward through the turquoise-blue enamel chimneys to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven—but nowhere else. The stove has every convenience that can be thought of: Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping food and dishes hot, drop shelves to hold coffee or teapots, towel rack; in fact every convenience possible.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive.

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY [Inc.] Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under act of Congress, March 2nd 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

The MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.25 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms No. 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be invariably rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith

Saturday, June 18th, 1910.

Says the Columbia State: "While in North Carolina the South Carolina editors will enjoy a number of Myths." Well, a South Carolina editor is a mytherious fellow anyhow, Mythter Editor.

A dispatch states that two lions, a leopard, a hyena, a jaguar and an ibex have escaped from a circus in Ohio. How lucky is the Rough Rider. Here's a congenial job open to him as soon as he gets home.

Congressman Burton Harrison might get over his snub at the White House if he would only keep from being troubled in his mind over the fact that Booker Washington had a better run of the White House than the New York Congressman.

Big wheat crops are being reported from western North Carolina. Some people will be surprised to know that there are Tar Heel farmers who do not buy Western flour, but eat buttermilk biscuits made out of flour that is worth eating.

Oh, but Dolliver would like to make a rejoinder to any rash regular who should attempt to reply to the Insurgent Senator's speech last Monday. However, no Regular has shown any sign of being put through the Westerner's threshing machine.

The Raleigh Caucasian appears this week in new dress. It is an eight-page paper, of exceedingly attractive appearance and its pages are brimful of interesting matter. It is Republican in politics and is vigorously and fearlessly edited, even if it is wrong.

"Is there any excuse for a man to be a pessimist?" demands a man who always looks on the bright side. As long as Congress is in session and goes on acting like it has, we must admit that we cannot conceal a predisposition to answer in the affirmative.

Secretary Wilson, of the Agricultural Department at Washington, has issued a bulletin vindicating hot bread. The Secretary is a strong Republican but this last act of his will convince the South that he is not an offensive partisan. It shows how rapidly they are imbibing Southern ideas at Washington.

A Kansas Judge has decided that a pedestrian must use proper diligence to keep from being run down by an automobile, or else he cannot recover damages. The pedestrian, therefore, must become reconciled to being classed with the innocent by-stander, unless he grows him some wings so he can fly up in the air when he is flushed by the buzz-wagon.

Let the farmers keep their eyes skinned for the appearance of insects in their crops. Insect damage to cotton or corn should be noted at once, a remedy applied and the State Agricultural Department at Raleigh called upon for information or investigation. Any stranger of the insect or parasite breed should have prompt attention. The boll weevil may come when it is least expected.

Speaking of the new railroad bill that is about to become a law, Editor R. L. Gray, of the Richmond Virginian, ventures to predict: "By the time the Congressmen who passed it get home, however, they will many of them find that the pigs have already gotten through their fences." The railroad presidents appeared to look on the bill as a bogey but when President Taft got them to the White House and let them see the real thing, as executively explained, they pinched themselves for being afraid to go through the graveyard woods.

WE ARE OVERSENSITIVE.

The Star paid no attention to recent reports from the North that ex-Governor Glenn in his lecture work "abused" the South concerning its treatment of the colored brother. Some of our esteemed contemporaries, "falling down" on the advice of Davy Crockett, severely criticized the former Governor for his alleged "abuse" or criticism of the South, and now it turns out that they have to take it all back. The Norhern story as published is denied, and explanations put a different face on it.

We did not jump on the Ex-Governor, for fear that he said something and might be able to prove it. However, we stand for criticism when it does not misrepresent. We grant it is every man's prerogative to speak his mind, and so far as newspapers are concerned they exercise that selfsame prerogative every day. We are in favor of criticis but when we stand up for their rights we want it understood that we are also in favor of skinning the critics when it is necessary and they deserve it. It is everybody's game. When all hands criticize, let them be sure they are right and then go ahead, after the manner of our old friend Crockett. Have judgment.

With reference to the report about the very talkative Glenn, we laid low. In the first place, we did not believe it, for we remembered a previous occasion when scattering remarks of his were misconstrued or misrepresented. In the second place, if the former Governor made remarks which were true, that did not constitute abuse. It is very bad judgment, however, to go away from home and talk about small things, but when questions are of importance and vital interest they ought to be discussed. There is a good work to be done at home in that connection. If the South has any faults it ought to know them and remedy them. They ought, however, to be talked at home, not with a view to carp and appear smart, but with the sincere purpose of setting reform movements on foot.

We Southerners are entirely too sensitive to criticism. Judicious and honest criticism is to the cancer on the civic body what the surgeon's knife is to the tumorous human body. It is not abuse to criticize error and wrong when the motive is to appeal to public sentiment for them to be righted. That is the way to secure a healthy and righteous public sentiment. Agitation of a matter or an issue is aimed at having it adopted or destroyed, but the difference in favor of agitation is that it indicates an effort to secure a reform or remedy an evil.

We are justified in getting up our dander when criticism is small talk and is inspired by malice. Sometimes we need the proper kind of criticism and it will do good. Often the lash does good. So it may be that there are a good many things about which we ought to kick ourselves if we don't turn over a new leaf. The idea should be to get right and keep on the right track.

As individuals, we will walk the chalk line if we know that we are going to be criticized, called down or raked over the coals. It makes us good sometimes when otherwise we may be disposed to fly the track. Individuals, communities, cities, counties, States, corporations and political parties are all subject to criticism of the right kind, and the whole bunch may deserve it and be benefited by it. The fact is, if criticism won't bring us to taw, the law ought to be invoked, as it frequently is.

The pesky, perky, peeved, perfidious, carping critic is the fellow we have it in for and we stand for the meat axe in dealing with him. However, rub it into us gently, with soothing stroke and benevolent intentions, and we welcome criticism. If we are right we can defy criticism. If we are wrong, we deserve it. Let us get right and cheat the criticis out of a chance at us.

A man who is "charged" with doing something or nothing should never demand the proof. Some fool might furnish it.

The Hon. Leslie M. Shaw has come to the front again in time to remind us that it doesn't take an actor to play the fool.

Judging from insinuations thrown out by the Washington Post we should infer that the insurgents are affinities and not soul mates of the Democrats in Congress.

The New York Globe insists that "a man should know himself." The Globe should be reminded that it is not every man who cares to form any new acquaintances.

A fight is now on between the butchers and Beef Trust. Nuf sed. It is not necessary to say that the Beef Trust has been suffering at the hands of the butchers.

The Lynchburg dental establishment which had $2,000 worth of false teeth stolen from it should be able to trace the theft to some Virginia politician who is addicted to biting sarcasm.

MONOPOLY AS A HANDICAP.

The conditions under which the shoe manufacturers in Massachusetts and other New England States have labored for many years indicates how seriously monopoly restricts enterprise and trade. For years the machinery which is used in the manufacture of shoes has been controlled by a monopoly called the Shoe Machinery Trust, which is a corporation known as the United Shoe Machinery Company. That company, with immense capital, has had the shoe manufacturers at its mercy because they were compelled to buy machinery from it or go out of business.

So long as the United Shoe Machinery Company could maintain a monopoly by leasing its different machines to the manufacturers on contract terms which bound them to use no other, and enabled the trust to take them away if the terms were violated, it had the whole industry of making shoes completely at its mercy, at least in the eastern part of the country where the industry was most highly developed.

The New York Journal of Commerce declares that the machinery trust had things so completely in their hands that although machinery improvements had been invented by others, the trust would not allow improved machinery to go into the factories, or else the trust would take out all its machines and leave the manufacturer helpless. Thus there was no incentive to invent improvements, because there was no market for them. As long as the trust could force its machines on the manufacturers and have no competition there was no necessity for it to make improvements or to buy others' improvements unless they got them at their own price.

Now comes the good news, however, that the shoe manufacturers are to be emancipated from the monopoly unless it buys up a complete set of new machines which have just been invented and patented by a Massachusetts shoe manufacturer. The shoe man has devised and developed a set of machinery for the different processes of shoe making in spite of the trust, but no doubt his success was because he had the capital to develop the new machinery and put it on the market. It is said that the new machinery is more effective and economical than that of the trust, but it may not be well to get too glad over it, for the trust most likely will buy up the new machinery and again crush out competition, while the government is making a bluff of prasecuting a little wholesale grocery organization in the South.

By the way, the officials of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association declare that their association is in no sense a trust and they are perfectly willing for an investigation. This latest trust busting stunt of the government has aroused a suspicion that the administration is playing a game of politics to catch votes by creating the impression that it is after the trusts. It is noted that while the government is after a few small concerns alleged to be trusts, Congress a few days ago had to pass a resolution urging the government to take a giant trust in hand—the Steel Trust. This is the trust which Roosevelt, when he was President, authorized to violate the Sherman law by gobbling up the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company, its strongest competitor.

Voters in the United States probably have enough gumption to notice that the trust busting programme is started just a few months before election time for effect. The trust cases cannot be tried now, but will go over till after election—the same as the government's suit against the Western trunk railroads. People may be fooled once more but they should not.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The railroads have refused to grant excursion rates to the Roosevelt reception in New York. Somehow the railroads persist in remembering that Mr. Roosevelt used to be President.—St. Paul Dispatch.

Brazil now has two dreadnaughts, the Sao Paulo and the Minas Geraes, each of them the equal of any of our battleships. If these and their proposed compliment of ships of lesser tonnage are to be united to the fleets of Chile and Argentina, the projected federation will have a very formidable navy.—Columbia State.

Mullins claims to be the leading tobacco market of South Carolina and is in the heart of a choice cotton-growing district. Perhaps the day will come when the poor will not be with so rich a community as Mullins is.—Columbia State.

We do not believe that ex-Governor Glenn is guilty of the despicable conduct of "trying it on the dog;" this is, making statements to have them reported and then, if the effect is not pleasing, knowingly denying the matter deliberately disseminated. We do think, however, that these incidents, coming one after the other, show that he ought to prepare his speeches and then stick to the text. If he does not, it is not the veracity of the reporers, but that of himself, which will suffer in general reputation.—Richmond Virginian.

Listen, gentlemen, to this answer by Parson Whichard, of the Greenville Reflector, to a request for a description of Editor Cowan, of the Wilmington Dispatch: "He might easily be taken for our twin brother. He is just a little bit larger in size and almost as good looking, but we outshined him on the hair proposition, his hop knot only reaching a sandy hue. If so near like us, you know he is bound to be the real article." If Cowan can't recover under the libel law for that there is no justice in the courts.—Salisbury Post.

Will any man who wants to make the State Republican spend his time criticising and abusing every recruit who comes to the party and referring to them sneeringly as "near-Democrats," as "commercial Democrats?" We can never carry the State until we gain many thousand recruits. Where can we get them except from the Democratic party? The fact is, that the pie-counter bosses and their organ are either too ignorant and stupid to know how to win recruits, or else they are deliberately trying to drive recruits from the party. This is so plain that even a ten-year-old boy can see it.—Raleigh Caucasian (Rep.)

We have seen much of North Carolina in our day, but not until the trip to Wilmington last week did we know that a few miles out from that city, and across the line in a neighboring county, is a colony of Italians that are making their section blossom like a rose. Their location is called St. Helena, and there are said to be something like 400 of them in the colony. They were brought there from northern Italy, noted for its good farmers, and are a vastly different people from the Sicilian class of peanut and banana venders who come from the southern part of that country. This colony was planted on unimproved land right in the woods, but they set to work in earnest and their section now looks like a truck garden. They are a class of immigrants that North Carolina needs and the State should have many such colonies.—Greenville Reflector.

A recently discovered telegram has caused the Rockingham poll-tax squabble to break out more violently than ever. To show the books or not to show the books, was a question upon which there seemed to be slight difference of opinion in the sheriff's office in Wentworth about May 1st. At least it seems impossible to discover by whose orders the people of Spray were deprived of a sight of the much-desired lists. The Review and the Weekly continue to have something to say about the matter each issue, and the end is not nearly in sight. National campaigns are interesting, State campaigns are sometimes lively, but for old-fashioned, intense politics commend us to a county fight in which everybody knows everybody else and events develop slowly enough to keep the participants on the alert for sufficient time to arouse their ginger.—Charlotte Observer.

Charity and Children offers some good advice to the newspaper men. "Brethren," it says, "let us all determine that we will not by voice or pen encourage the ugly spirit that is manifesting itself in the political campaign that is waging in certain sections of our State. The late deplorable gubernatorial campaign opened a Pandora's box of hate and bitterness; and we are reaping the fruits of that miserable campaign. Each citizen should contribute his part, be it large or small, toward calming the raging elements and bringing peace and harmony out of confusion and strife." No doubt Editor Johnson had in mind the present torn up condition of the party's home at State headquarters. It is no use to ask that crowd to quiet down and behave like respectable Democrats, but the thought Charity and Children gives expression to may serve to prevent a like situation in other parts of the State.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Scotland county, while one of the smallest in North Carolina, produces more cotton to the acre than any county in the State. The reason is that the geological formaion of Marlboro county, S. C., laps over into North Carolina and practically covers the whole of Scotland county. A part but not all of Robeson county, is composed of Marlboro soil. What this means is manifest from a statement made in a bulletin issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor to the effect that in Marlboro county the average production per square mile for 1909 was 132 bales, compared with 78.3 bales for 1904, and 63.5 bales for 1889. The bulletin refers to the statement that intensive farming had its beginning in this county about 1857, and it argues that, if it may be assumed that the record of this county for 1909 indicates the potentiality in cotton growing for all the 812 counties for which ginning was returned last year, the possible production for the United States would be estimated at more than 80,000,000 bales, without taking into account any further extension of the cotton-growing area. —Charlotte Chronicle.

CHERAW COMPLAINS OF RATES.

Allege Coast Line Discriminates in Favor of N. C. Towns.

The Columbia State of Thursday: "Alleging discrimination on freight rates generally several citizens of Cheraw appeared before the railroad commission yesterday at a hearing which was held for the purpose of taking testimony. It was alleged that the town of Cheraw was being discriminated against in favor of Wadesboro, Rockingham and Hamlet, three towns in North Carolina. Cheraw is a junctional point of the Atlantic Coast and the Seaboard Air Line and the Chesterfield & Lancaster railways.

"There appeared before the commission representing the business interests of Cheraw: H. V. Duvall, William Godfrey, W. D. Evans and A. E. Thrower. The Atlantic Coast Line was represented by R. A. Brand, the general traffic manager.

"Both sides submitted arguments which were taken under consideration by the commission."

Chadbourn Iron Works Assigns.

Whiteville News-Reporter: "Last Saturday the Chadbourn Iron Works made an assignment, Hon. I. B. Tucker being named assignee. The liabilities are about $2,000, Mr. Ira Lennon holding a mortgage for $3,200. Mr. Tucker will sell the plant and pay off the indebtedness. This is a fine little plant, and Columbus county cannot afford to let it go down. We hope the clever and enterprising proprietors will arrange the matter so as to resume operations."

No Law Giving Croatans Any Bounty in Lands of Money.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, D. C., June 14.—The Croatan Indian is taking an active part in the congressional campaign in the sixth district. He is being told, it is said, that the government owes him something by an act of Congress of 1906. When asked concerning this the Indian commissioner here said that there was no law giving the Croatans any bounty in lands or money, the nearest approach being a special act for Cherokees, now out of date, which did not include the Croatans and would not have done so even if their name had been changed.

Those who keep up with such things here do not believe that the Croatan will ever get a rake off of any kind from the government. He will get just what other Robeson county citizens are entitled to and no more, is the way Indian affairs experts put it.

SCOTLAND POLITICS.

Various County Offices and Senatorial Race in District.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., June 17.—Yesterday was the last day for the announcements of candidates for the various county offices. There is to be no opposition to any of the following candidates: Commissioners W. G. Buie, of Spring Hill township; W. F. Parker, of Williamson township, and D. C. McNeill, of Laurinburg; for sheriff, W. D. McLaurin; for register of deeds, C. E. Muse; for clerk of Superior court, H. H. Covington; for representative, W. H. Weatherspoon; for coroner, J. R. Jordan. The only political fight of proportions worth calling attention to is centered in and around Gibson over the office of cotton weigher.

Moore and Lee counties are forcing Scotland to take a part in the Senatorial fight. It is generally conceded that Scotland will support Lee's candidate, Mr. Hoyle.

Wilmington Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Wilmington citizen:

R. F. Rowan, 603 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I have no reason to alter my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, publicly expressed some years ago, after I had used them with good results. Since then many people have called on me and asked if the statement I gave were true and it was always afforded me pleasure to answer in the affirmative. As the result of a strain, I suffered a great deal from backache. At times I was so lame that I could hardly straighten and my back was so weak that I was unable to lift. I tried plasters and liniments but they did me no good and when I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store. I felt relieved after taking a few doses and continued use strengthened my back and disposed of the pains. Since then there has been no return attack of kidney complaint and I firmly believe my cure is a permanent one.

WILL ENLARGE BUILDING

$20,000 Addition to be Erected to Wilmington High School—Decided by Board of Education Yesterday.

Following a brief conference with the city school committeemen, the County Board of Education in special session at the Court House yesterday afternoon adopted a resolution authorizing the committeemen of districts No. 1 and 2 to proceed at once to the erection of a $20,000 addition to the High School building in order to take care of the increased number of pupils expected to enter the school at the beginning of the next term. The enlargement of the present building is an absolute necessity and the committeemen will rush the work with all possible speed.

The board met at 4 o'clock with Chairman J. O. Carr presiding and Messrs. W. H. Sprunt and D. J. Fergus, members of the board; Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of public instruction; Committeemen J. A. Taylor, James H. Chadbourn, Samuel Bear and John D. Bellamy, Jr., in attendance. Upon the suggestion of Chairman Carr it was ordered that a census be taken in the northern and southern sections of the city of children of school age, the work in the northern section to be under the direction of Mr. Sprunt and the work in the southern section to be in charge of Mr. Fergus. The census will be taken for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not an additional school is needed in either or both sections of the city.

The matter of enlarging the High School building was discussed by both members of the board and the committeemen, after which the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Board of Education authorize committees No. 1 and 2 to erect a building or annex in connection with the High School building to cost not exceeding $20,000 exclusive of equipment, and that the said Board of Education provide for cost of same by loan or otherwise as it deems best."

All the architects of the city have been invited to submit plans for the addition and it is understood that three of the architects are now at work on designs. As soon as the plans for the addition have been accepted by the committeemen bids for doing the work will be asked for and it is hoped to have the work practically completed by the time of the opening in the Fall. The addition will be built on the front side and will provide for eight recitation rooms. They wil enable the committeemen to restore to the school the auditorium, which was used the past year for four recitation rooms, and will provide for four additional class rooms to take care of the increased number of pupils expected this year. It was stated at the meeting yesterday that the $20,000 would provide ample High School facilities for the next ten years.

VETERAN PRINTER NORTH.

Capt. E. R. Law to Return to His Native Heath in New York State.

Capt. E. R. Law, perhaps the oldest active printer in North Carolina, if not in the United States, a resident here for the past twenty-five years or more and an esteemed citizen, leaves Wilmington today acompanied by his wife, for his old home in New York State where he will make his home in the future. "Cap." Law, as he was affectionately known by the "boys," in the olden days of hand composition, had a case on The Morning Star and has been employed in perhaps every office in town. He has reached the ripe old age of 78, but is still active and in good health and is numbered as yet "one of the boys." He has been continuously for more than 50 years a member of the International Typographical Union, being perhaps one of the original members of that organization, which now numbers its membership almost by the million. Capt. Law has a host of Wilmington friends, many of them among the "old-timers," who will regret to know of his departure and will wish for him many years yet to come in the home of his young manhood in New York State.

ROSIN IS SELLING WELL.

Bringing Better Price Than in Three Years—Receipts Increase.

Rosin on the local market reached the figure of $4.20 per barrel yesterday, which is the best quotation in Wilmington for three years. In the early Spring of 1907 the price went as high as $4.30 and the prices yesterday came nearer approaching those figures than any time since. The receipts of rosin during the past week compared with the third week in June in the previous season are 1,400 against 735, an increase of 665 barrels. An increase is also shown in spirits for the same period, the figures being 130 casks against 260 casks. A general increase in naval stores has been shown throughout the season.

GRAIN ELEVATOR FOR WHARF

Boney & Harper Milling Company Will Erect Large Structure Next Fall. Bought Worth Property for That Purpose.

A large concrete grain elevator to be operated in connection with their present milling plant will be erected in the early Fall by the Boney & Harper Milling Company on the property purchased this week from Mr. William E. Worth, on Nutt, between Grace and Walnut streets, and Mr. G. J. Boney leaves within a few days for the West where he will confer with contractors in regard to the proposed structure.

The site secured is most desirable for a structure of the kind, being directly across the street from the present mill of the company and it is the purpose of the company to operate the elevator and mill jointly. Mr. Boney discussed the proposed plans of the company yesterday, stating that the elevator would have a storage capacity of some 60,000 bushels, and, of course, will be the biggest building of this kind in this section of the country.

To perfect plans and make other preliminary arrangements for the elevator will be the prime object of Mr. Boney's trip to the West this year and he will be gone seevral weeks.

The property parchased by the company has 66 feet frontage on Nutt street and extends back to the river, taking in 492 feet to the water's edge, thus providing wharfage for the new elevator. The price paid for the property, as previously stated, was $20,000.

It will be quite an addition to the already modern milling facilities of this enterprising company and the new structure built of concrete, will be substantial, well equipped and will provide ample storage room for the company's rapidly growing business.

Mr. Boney believes that all plans will be completed for the work to begin at the time stated and is pleased with the new property acquired by the company and its splendid location, which is of distinct advantage in many ways for the purposes to which it will be assigned. Overhead connection will be made between the elevator and the present mill and the new building will be made absolutely fire-proof.

The elevator contractors will have the matter in hand within a short time, but at present no estimate of the probable cost of the building can be given.

JUMPED FROM CAR AND HURT.

Negro Youth Injured Near Cape Fear Golf Links Yesterday.

A colored youth, apparently about 10 years old, who goes by the name of "Reddy," and is supposed to live at Sixth and Wright streets, was injured to some extent by jumping from a street car from the ball park yesterday afternoon. The injury seemed to be in the knee. When the car slowed up for the incline at the Cape Fear Golf links two negro youths, both about 10 years old, boarded the rear of the car, expecting to steal a ride to the city. They saw Captain Sheehan on the car and "Reddy" jumped off, but his companion was held fast by one of the company's employes. "Reddy" seemed to land all right, but when the car had gone some 200 or 300 yards it was observed that he got up limping. He was taken in charge by some negroes who happened to be passing at the time. Captain Sheehan gave orders for the next car to take up the youth, but he had been taken away by the negroes before the other car came along. "Reddy's" companion was brought on to 17th and Market streets, where, after being severely reprimanded by Captain Sheehan, he was put off the car.

BEFORE SPECIAL MASTER.

Hearing Yesterday in the Steamer Manchester Miller Case.

Before Special Master E. S. Martin in the United States court room yesterday, testimony was taken in the admiralty action brought by the owners of the steamer Manchester Miller against the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, involving a claim for about $1,300. The hearing was concluded about 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The first witness was Mr. A. S. Heide, who testified for the libellants, being followed by Capt. Edgar Williams and Mr. M. S. Reynolds, witnesses for the defendants. At the afternoon session the only witness examined was Capt. St. George, a pilot, who testified to the effect that he advised the steamer to take the tug. The testimony was taken down by Mr. Meares Harris, the expert court stenographer. The libellants are represented by J. P. K. Bryan, Esq., of Charleston, S. C., and Meares & Ruark, of this city, while Rountree & Carr appear for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company. The argument of counsel in the case will be made later, after which the Special Master will make up his report.

BOND REQUIRED OF DEFENDANT.

Recorder Will Investigate Case Against W. E. Pearson Today.

The case against W. E. Pearson, a grocer at corner of 13th and Market streets, charged with selling whiskey to Jerry Hobbs, was called in the Recorder's court yesterday morning but was continued until today at the request of counsel for the defense who stated that an important witness was absent and his presence in court could not be had until today. Fearing that the prosecutor and chief witness, Jerry Hobbs, would not be present to give testimony in the case today Recorder Furlong required him to give bond in the sum of $100. County Attorney Marsden Bellamy and K. C. Sidbury, Esq., represent the prosecution and Kellum & Loughlin and A. J. Marshall, Esq., represent the defendant.

VESSEL COMES FOR COTTON.

Steamer Barnton Expected to Arrive From New York Today.

The British steamer Barnton, Capt. Ross, probably the last of the season for cotton from this port for foreign export is expected to arrive from New York today, having cleared the latter part of Thursday.

On account of the light receipts, exports have been small for the past two months. At present there are 8,875 bales of cotton in the compresses of Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son. The steamer will either go to Bremen or Liverpool. The Barnton left New York the same day of the Winyah, which arrived yesterday with cement, and it is probable that she will begin loading at the compress by Monday morning.

Winyah Arrives With Cargo.

The Clyde Line steamer Winyah, Capt. Bunnell, arrived yesterday from New York with cargo of cement for the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Company. It was erroneously stated yesterday that the cargo was consigned to the Seaboard. This is an extra trip of the Clyde Line steamer, which has been making frequent trips to this port, plying regularly between New York and other Southern ports.

LAWYERS MEET THIS MONTH

Programme, as Published Some Weeks Ago, Has Been Printed and is Being Distributed by Secretary Thos. W. Davis.

Thos. W. Davis, Esq., of Wilmington, secretary of the North Carolina Bar Association, which holds it 12th annual meeting at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, June 28th, 29th and 30th, has received from the presses and distributed among the members of the association the programme for the convention.

The programme in detail was published in The Star more than a month ago, it being given to the press shortly after it was arranged by the committee and has not since been changed. However, it may be well, owing to the near approach of the time of the convention, to give a resume of the features of the meeting. The convention will be called to order in the assembly hall of Seashore Hotel on the evening of June 28th by Hon. E. W. Timberlake, of Wake Forest, chairman of the executive committee. The first meeting will be in the nature of a welcome to the visitors and the address in behalf of the Wilmington bar will be delivered by Herbert McClammy, Esq., one the ablest members of the local bar. The response will be made by Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, one of the most prominent members of the profession in the State. This will be followed by the annual address of the president, Col. John W. Hinsdale, of Raleigh. All the standing committees, with the exception of the Committee on Memorial, will make reports at Tuesday evening's session. The report of the memorial committee will be made Wednesday morning. The following are the chairmen of the various committees: Executive, E. W. Timberlake, Esq., Wake Forest; admission to membership, Sol. Gallert, Esq., Rutherfordton; legislation and law reform, W. D. Pruden, Edenton; judiciary, Clement Manly, Winston; legal education and admission to bar, N. Y. Gulley, Esq., Wake Forest; grievances, Maj. H. A. London, Pittsboro; memorials, Col. N. A. McLean, Lumberton; legal ethics, George Rountree, Esq., Wilmington.

On the morning of June 29th, the convention will be addressed by Hon. N. A. McLean, of Lumberton, and at the evening session the principal address will be made by James Byrne, Esq., of New York City. Thursday the visitors will be entertained by the local bar, the feature being a trip down the Cape Fear river on the steamer Wilmington, leaving the city at 10 A. M. In the evening the association will hear an address by W. H. Pace, Esq., of Raleigh.

The following compose the executive committee: E. W. Timberlake, chairman; A. B. Andrews, Jr., secretary; A. M. Scales, W. D. Pruden, E. T. Cansler, T. S. Rollins, John W. Hinsdale and Thomas W. Davis.

Hon. John D. Bellamy, of this city, is a member of the committee on admission to membership from this district.

The committee from the New Hanover county bar appointed some time ago to arrange for the entertainment of the visiting attorneys is composed of Thos. W. Davis, chairman; Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., and Robert Ruark, Esq.

LEG BROKEN IN TWO PLACES.

Negro Laborer Seriously Injured While Unloading Fertilizer.

It was stated from the James Walker Memorial Hospital last night that Hayes Moore, a negro laborer, who had one of his legs broken in two places while unloading fertilizrs from a steamer Thursday afternoon at the S. A. L. terminals, was resting as well as could be expected and that unless something unforeseen developed, will recover. Monroe and other negroes were at work under a "sling," which was transferring the fertilizer material from the vessel to the wharf, when the "sling" broke, the large amount of fertilizer pinning the negro to the ground. Dr. Thomas M. Green was summoned and after rendering temporary attention, sent the negro to the hospital.

Back From Pythian Meeting.

The local delegation to the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, domain of North Carolina, which was held in Charlotte, returned early yesterday morning, and all speak in the highest praise of Charlotte and the way in which that city took care of the meeting. Among those returning were: Capt. Thos. D. Meares, Supreme Master of Exchequer; District Deputy Grand Chancellor Thomas D. Meares, Jr., Col. Walker Taylor, chairman of the Grand Lodge Judiciary Committee; State Deputy Grand Chancellor James D. Nutt, Messrs. John Haar, J. D. Kelly, C. McD. Jones and L. B. Rogers.

Dr. C. W. Stiles Arrives.

Dr. C. W. Stiles, Scientific Secretary of the Rockefeller Hookworm Commission, an expert on the hookworm disease has arrived to attend the 57th annual session of the North Carolina Medical Society, which will be held at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, next week. Dr. Stiles is a guest at the Seashore. The programme for the medical convention provides for a conference on the hookworm disease Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock and Dr. Stiles will be one of the principal speakers. His address will have to do mainly with sanitary matters.

Mr. Allen D. Byrd Bereaved.

Mr. Allen D. Byrd, of the fire boat "Atlantic," received a telegram yesterday morning conveying to him the sad intelligence of the death of his father, which occurred very suddenly at his home in New York City Thursday night. No particulars were contained in the telegram. Mr. Byrd left last night for New York to attend the funeral services. Many friends in this city of Mr. Byrd will deeply sympathize with him in his bereavement.

ALDERMANIC BODY ROTTEN?

Is Charge Made by Alderman West—Near-Beer Places Must Close at 9 P. M.—Restaurant Licenses Granted.

"This is the rottenest Board of Aldermen I ever saw," was the declaration of Alderman West at the special meeting of the aldermanic body yesterday at noon in discussing a motion made by Alderman Hall that the near-beer saloons be required to close at 9 P. M. instead of 11 P. M. as fixed in the near-beer ordinance which, by the way, has been subjected to alterations at each meeting since its adoption about a month ago. Mr. West's arraignment of the Aldermen did not avail him anything, for the hour of closing was changed to 9 P. M. by a majority vote.

The meeting was called to order at 12 o'clock with Mayor Walter G. MacRae presiding and Aldermen Hinton, Stone, Ellis, West, Fales, Bonitz and Yopp in attendance. Alderman Hall arrived later. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan was present as city attorney in the absence of City Attorney Herbert McClammy. Mayor MacRae stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of taking action on applications for restaurant licenses, and asked City Clerk and Treasurer John J. Fowler to read the applications. The first one read was that of William Warren, colored, at Tenth and Grace streets, which was turned down at a previous meeting upon objection of Alderman Ellis, who in the meantime made an investigation with the result that he learned that Warren conducts an orderly place and there is no objection to him in the neighborhood. Alderman Ellis, therefore, recommended that the license be granted. The motion prevailed. The first contest was when the application of G. C. Orr for license to conduct a restaurant at corner of 11th and Market streets, was read. Alderman Ellis called attention to a rather disorderly crowd around the place last Sunday and suggested to the chief of police that he station an officer there on Sundays. "Another Dulin retreat," stated Alderman West in opposing the granting of the license. The motion to grant the license was made by Alderman Yopp, but after the discussion he withdrew the motion. The board again declined to grant a license to B. Franco to conduct a restaurant at No. 2 Market street, notwithstanding the fact that a petition was presented bearing the signatures of Aldermen Yopp, Hinton and Rehder and several persons doing business near corner of Water and Market streets. When a motion was made to grant the license Alderman Stone, who objected to the application some weeks ago, stated that a policeman told him of a man going into the restaurant to purchase whiskey some days ago; that the officer said the man stated that he purchased it and in effect that he could get whiskey there any time. After hearing this statement Alderman Hinton withdrew his endorsement. Messrs. Kellum & Loughlin were present in behalf of the applicant and Mr. Kellum addressed the board. In course of his remarks he denied for his client the allegation that whiskey was sold at the restaurant and declared it manifestly unfair to refuse to grant the application. Mr. Kellum stated that the applicant was just outside the aldermanic chambers and would be glad to answer any questions that might be asked him by the Aldermen. The members of the Board were determined not to reconsider their action in refusing the license and upon motion of Alderman Ellis the board passed on to the consideration of other applications.

The following were granted licenses: Wm. Warren, 10th and Grace streets; Lula S. Kelly, Love's Alley; Ellen Jones, 422 North Water street; Alex. D. Wright, 12th and Meadow Willie Cobb, No. 12 South Second; Snowden Harris, 516 Campbell. The following were refused: G. C. Orr, 11th and Market; J. W. Donald Co., Princess, between Tenth and Eleventh; L. R. Welch, No. 15 Market; John Norman, No. 4 Market.

Alderman Yopp stated that Mr. M. D. Bright, who conducts a pool room on Princess, between Second and Third streets, was granted a near-beer license at the last meeting of the board and wanted to know whether he would be required to close up his pool room at 11 P. M. just because he sold near-beer, or would be allowed to continue the pool tables until midnight. Alderman Hall made the point that the action of the Aldermen at the last meeting in changing the near-beer ordinance so as to permit restaurants holding near-beer licenses to remain open all night, provided that no near-beer be sold after 11 P. M., was illegal as the meeting was called for the express purpose of opening bids. Mayor MacRae stated that he had ruled that it was proper to take up the near-beer question at the last meeting.

"Then I offer an amendment that all near-beer saloons close at 9 P. M." said Alderman Hall and the motion was seconded by Alderman Stone.

Here is where the fun began. Alderman West was on his feet in an instant.

"This is the most unmitigated gall I ever heard of. The position is preposterous. It is simply child's play. You adopt a near-beer ordinance and then come up here and change it at every meeting. This is the rottenest Board of Aldermen I ever saw." Alderman West also stated that it was unjust to the near-beer dealers to grant them licenses to operate their places until 11 o'clock and then require them to close at 9 P. M.

Alderman Stone took exceptions to the remarks of his fellow Alderman and made a rather heated reply. He said that when the other side, meaning the "wet" side, desired a change in the ordinance it was all right to demand the change at the hands of the board, but when his side, the "drys" asked for a change the "Board of Aldermen" was rotten. He stated further that his faction was entitled to some consideration, although they did not belong to "The Big Six."

Alderman Hall made a statement in which he scored Chief of Police Williams for going to the board about a disorderly near-beer place instead of exercising his authority and closing up the establishment. He said that at the last meeting the chief had the nerve to report a disorderly near-beer place and wanted the board to do something when he should have acted himself, or words to that effect. Chief Williams was present and replied to Alderman Hall by stating that he did not remember the report referred to by the Alderman and further that unless the Board of Aldermen wanted him to co-operate with them in the granting of licenses he could not understand why the applications were ever referred to him. "You call on me to help you and then turn around and criticise me for doing the thing you ask me to do," stated the chief somewhat impatiently.

Alderman Bonitz stated his position. He said that he voted for the $300 tax with the understanding that the restrictions adopted at the time would be rigidly enforced, but instead they have been altered from time to time until now it looks as if the old conditions would soon prevail. He was in favor of 9 o'clock as the closing hour. He offered an amendment to the motion of Alderman Hall that the near-beer dealers who do not desire to continue in business under the new closing hours be refunded the amount or the tax for the unexpired time. In reply to a question ex-Judge Bryan said that it would be legal for the board to take such action, but it would be necessary for the Board of Audit and Finance to concur.

Alderman Bonitz called attention to the ever increasing number of restaurants, there being at present, he said, about 90 in Wilmington—enough for the City of New York, he said. If all these places are permitted to remain open all night, he said, some would be selling whiskey. He thought some steps should be taken to regualte them. The motion to change the hour of closing of near-beer saloons and the amendment of Alderman Boniz were voted upon and carried by a majority vote.

It was ordered that the clerk incorporate in his minutes that it is the sense of the board that pool rooms with near-beer places attached may keep the pool tables in operation until 12 o'clock, but no near-beer may be sold after 9 P. M.

Upon motion of Alderman Fales, the street hands were granted the usual week's vacation with full pay, and upon motion of Alderman Hinton it was ordered that the tax books for 1909 be turned over to the City Attorney for the collection of taxes from delinquents. The board adjourned at 12:45 P. M.

Mexican MUSTANG LINIMENT

An unfailing remedy for the ills of your Livestock and especially valuable in cases of Caked Udder and Sore Teats in Cows.

Saves Loss in the Dairy.

LYON MANUFACTURING CO.,
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—It seems to me among your claims as to the efficacy of Mexican Mustang Liniment you hardly give prominence enough to its wonderful curative power on inflamed and caked udder in cows. I have used it for two years in my stable and since I began its use have not had a case which was not relieved by a few applications. A thorough bathing of the udder with hot water followed by gentle and persistent rubbing in of the "Mustang" will, I believe, cure any case, leaving the teats in good order—unless suppuration has already begun. If all others in the dairy business knew this it would save much worry and loss. Respectfully,

MRS. A. I. YOUNG,
Columbus, Ga. The Pines Dairy.

Mexican Mustang Liniment soothes the afflicted parts while curing them.

IT CONTAINS NO ALCOHOL AND DOES NOT, THEREFORE, STING OR TORTURE THE FLESH.

A CARD.

Lillington, N. C., June 15, 1910.

Mr. Editor: It seems that reports are being circulated in some of the counties of the Sixth Congressional District to the effect that the people of Harnett county are against Mr. H. L. Godwin in the Congressional fight, and that he will not be able to carry this county. I want to say most emphatically that these reports are false. The people of Harnett county are behind Mr. Godwin in this fight. As Register of Deeds of the county I am daily thrown in touch with people from all sections of the county and I know how they stand. They believe in Hannibal Godwin. They know he is the best Congressman they have ever had, and they are determined that he shall go back again. The people of this county are a working people, and every working man knows that Mr. Godwin is his friend. They are a progressive people, and they believe in men who do things. They are proud of Mr. Godwin and of his success; they glory in his record in Congress.

Some who read this may have been at Fayetteville four years ago and may remember the stand taken by Harnett's delegation in that convention. If so, go to Wrightsville on the 21st of July and you will see her delegation taking the same stand, fighting for the same cause, just as solidly, and far more stubbornly than at Fayetteville.

To Mr. Godwin's friends in other counties I would say, "Don't you waste any time worrying about what Harnett will do, for when the roll is called at Wrightsville Harnett w..l be there voting solidly "for Hannibal Godwin, her favorite son." To his opponents who listen eagerly to the false reports being circulated, and who turn longing eyes toward our county, I recommend the text of the old negro preacher, "Blessed is ye if ye don't expect nothin' for ye shall not be disappointed."

FINE DAY FOR OUTING

Large Crowd Spent Yesterday Delightfully at Carolina Beach.

One of the most successful and largely patronized excursions of the season was that given to Carolina Beach yesterday by the Ladies Aid Society of Immanuel Presbyterian Church. The steamer Wilmington made three trips to the pier during the day, the last boat returning to the city at midnight. Most of those went down during the day stayed for the last boat back to the city and quite a number went down on the evening trip of the steamer. Refreshments were served during the day by the ladies. The day was ideal for such an outing and nothing whatever occurred to mar the pleasure of any one. Captain J. W. Harper, the popular and genial owner of the steamer, was solicitous of the comfort and pleasure of all and won the unstinted praise of the entire party. The excursion was given by the ladies for the benefit of the Furnace Fund of the church and a neat sum was realized. Rev. J. S. Crowly, pastor of the church, stated last night that a number of persons had made donations to the fund, which has been increased considerably during the past few days.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVING

Party of Fifty From Atlanta and Birmingham Came in on Special Train Last Night—Fishing Parties Yesterday.

The indications are that the hotels at Wrightsville Beach will be crowded for the week-end, large parties having arrived last evening and others being expected today. The first large crowd from points south arrived last night over the Seaboard Air Line on a special train and were taken directly to the beach on suburban cars.

Owing to a derailment of a freight train on the third division of the Seaboard the regular train on which members of the party were passengers was delayed for several hours below Monroe, N. C., missing connections at Hamlet for the train arriving here in the afternoon, and the Seaboard Air Line, rather than cause the party a long delay in Hamlet, operated a special train for their benefit, which, it is needless to say, was greatly appreciated.

Members of the party are guests at both the Tarrymoore and Seashore hotels. Among those at the Tarrymoore are H. E. Crow, W. J. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dunn, Mrs. T W. Johnson and little sons; Mrs Francis Kamper, and Misses Florence and Kathleen Kamper, G. A. Dunlop, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Stork, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Matthews, of Atlanta, Ga. Among the other arrivals at the Tarrymoore yesterday are noted Judge Granville Beale, of South Carolina; J. M. Hays, Petersburg, Va.; E. McN. Carr, Rose Hill; W. C. Wright, Monroe, Ga.; and G. D. Stallings, Rome, Ga. In addition to some 15 or 20 members of the Georgia-Alabama party the following are among the arrivals at the Seashore yesterday: Mrs. J. A. Roseborough and two daughters, St. Louis; M. J. Mallett, Batimore; M. H. Neal, Hartford, Conn.; Louis Ronthschild, Philadelphia, and C. P. Walton, Richmond.

Fishing is extra fine at the beach this season and each party that goes out has splendid luck. A delightful fishing party was given from the Tarrymoore Hotel yesterday morning in honor of Dr. John C. Rodman, of Washington, N. C., president of the State Board of Medical Examiners. In the party were Dr. Rodman, Messrs. P. T. Rankin, C. T. Greer, C. J. Turvey, C. H. Pugh and H. B. Rowe, all of Charlotte. Captain W. M. Marine, of the launch Atlanta, was in charge of the boat and gave the party a most delightful and successful trip, 200 fine trout and pigfish being caught.

Captain Gornto, of the launch Olive, and Mr. H. R. Everhart, of Lexington, went out yesterday and brought in over 200 fine fish.

Captain Wells carried out another successful party from the Seashore Hotel in his launch Hornet. In the party were Messrs. W. C. Carrington and S. T. Reid, Spartanburg, S. C.; Messrs. Nunnelly, Canady, Boney and Perry, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mr. Oscar Thieve, of Charlotte. In less than two hours the party caught 150 fine trout.

CONTINUES HIS INVESTIGATIONS

New York Attorney Goes to Southport in Search of Facts.

Joseph S. Buhler, Esq., member of the law firm of Dennis & Buhler, of New York, who is here making a personal investigation regarding the part taken by Adams and Sawyers in the schooner Barwind tragedy off North Carolina coast some five years ago, was in conference yesterday with Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., who appeared for the negroes at the trial; George Rountree and Iredell Meares, Esqs., and a number of others, who gave him much valuable information. Mr. Buhler stated to a Star representative last night that although he began the investigation with the idea that the men were guilty of the crime of which they were convicted and sentenced that he is now pretty well convinced of their innocence. However, he will remain here for several days yet in order to continue his investigation and learn everything possible connected with the tragedy. He will spend today at Southport interviewing persons there who know something of the crime. As previously stated Mr. Buhler is representing Mr. H. B. Warner, of New York City, to whom Adams and Sawyer recently appealed to aid them in their efforts to secure their freedom. Mr. Buhler spent two days in Washington and ploughed through every bit of the testimony bearing on the trial of the case and then called upon former District Attorney Harry Skinner, who prosecuted the case against the negroes. What Mr. Buhler wants are the facts in the case, whether favorable or unfavorable to the negroes, and he would be glad to talk to any who may know anything of the crime, or who have decided opinions either way. Upon the information gleaned from the records in Washington and from his investigations in this section he will draw his conclusions and advise his client what further steps to take in the matter. Mr. Buhler is a young man, handsome, affable and genial, and is, by the way, a native of Georgia—one of the many Southerners whose legal ability has been recognized in the metropolis.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Railroad Supervisor Met Horrible Death Near Statesville.

Statesville, June 17.—A. B. Hatchett, of Inman, S. C., formerly supervisor of the Spartanburg division, but who for some time has been in charge of an extra track force of the Southern Railway on this division, was instantly killed by being crushed beneath a locomotive at Marion, this morning. Hatchett's force of men were at work on the track in the Marion yards and while walking along the track he failed to hear the engine of the work train which was backing up the same track behind him and was knocked down and run over. His body was terribly mangled.

THE EDINBURGH CONFERENCE

Report of Commission Dealing With Religious Subjects Yesterday.

Edinburgh, June 17.—"Seldom has the Christian church been called to meet so great an opportunity or to respond to such immense and varied needs," says the commission on "Education in Relation to Christianizating of National Life" in its report, presented today, to the International ..issionary Conference, in session here. The commission recommends a wide development of educational work in connection with missionary endeavors, and warns the churches against the danger of losing sight of the primary object—to seek the complete conversion of Christianity of these who come within the influence of the work, instead of resting content with lower and subordinate ends of education.

In describing the influence of missionary work upon the national life of the peoples to which it has been carried, the commission reports that a large proportion of the best moral and spirtual influences of the missions have emenated from the schools.

"It is probable," says the report, "that the most striking public witness for Christianity hitherto borne, specially in India, the witness which has most impressed even hostile native observers has been the power which the Christian missionaries have exhibited by means of education to raise the lowest classes—the pariahs, or outcasts—of the community. It is not too much to say that the missionaries have proved more than any other class a bond of spiritual fellowship between foreigners and natives. Whatever has been accomplished in the direction of realizing the fellowship of humanity—and that is one of the greatest of all human enterprises—has been accomplished by no class of men so much as by the missionaries.

"We desire to put on record our firm conviction that Christianity, by reason of its unique message to the world, has a unique part to play in the work of education. One of the striking phenomena of the present hour is the world-wide recognition of the necessity of the moral, if not also of the religious, element in education. With due recognition of the many elements of truth and value in the non-Christian system of religion and ethics, we should nevertheless be faithful—not alone to our religion, but to the facts of experience—if we did not at this time reaffirm our conviction that the education of the world demands for its highest and best development those elements of truth which are the peculiar contribution of Christianity to the world's thought and life."

The commission reports that a majority of its members believe that the motive of missionary education may include the philanthropic desire to promote the general welfare of the people. A minority does not agree with this, holding that to suggest to Christian educators the vaguer philanthropic aim would be to direct them upon a path which their efforts would lose in intensity, and the definite Christian motive would be weakened. The commissioners all agree, however, that the most important of all the ends which missionary education ought to set itself to serve is that of training those who are to be the spiritual leaders and teachers of the men of their own nation.

Are You a Woman?

You Need a Tonic

Weak women need a tonic, to build up their constitution. All women feel weak, at times, and then they need a tonic worse than those who are always weak.

If you decide to take a tonic, why not take a woman's tonic—the woman's tonic, CARDUI?

Half a century of success behind it, proves that Cardui has merit, for it is only medicines of merit that "stick"—that sell for years, after the meritless medicines are forgotten.

Naturally, the Cardui success is attested by thousands of women who have tried it—who write us, giving us permission to publish their letters if we wish, for the sake of their suffering sisters, whom they pity and wish to benefit.

So, we gladly print this letter from Mrs. Lizzie Dodson, of Boss, Mo., to show those ladies who doubt, that what we claim is true. Mrs. Dodson writes:

"I just want to say that your Cardui is the best medicine in the world. Last winter I wasn't able to do my work for 5 weeks. I couldn't stand on my feet but a short time, I had such bearing down misery. One day I got my husband to buy me a bottle of Cardui, and by night I felt like a different women. I have now been taking Cardui for four months and cannot praise it too highly for the good it has done me."

Cardui, the woman's tonic, is a safe, harmless, vegetable extract, and should be taken by all women, young and old. Try it. It will help you.

PREMIUM SCUPPERNONG

"THE DISTINCTIVELY SUPERIOR WINE."

¶ To the person who appreciates the flavor and bouquet in wine, this special brand appeals—its discovery by those to whom, for the first time it is offered, is a grateful revelation.

¶ The grape from which it is made is peculiarly a local product and imitators both in this country and abroad have utterly failed to produce its equal.

¶ Every sip suggests the richly mellow flavor of the freshly picked grape—its fragrance is charming. Its delicacy is its crowning appeal.

¶ An initial order will prove convincing. We will prepay the express charges anywhere East of the Mississippi—on a case containing 12 bottles (5s) for $7.00. Order direct from the makers, and save four profits.

¶ Remit by P. O. or Express Money Order or Draft. Booklet containing Price List and many helpful hints on selecting and serving wine, sent on request.

¶ All of our products guaranteed under National Pure Food Laws.

SOME ACTIVITY IN COTTON

Rumors of Indictments in Bull Pool Case Caused Sensational Break in the Late Trading—Closing Tone Steady.

New York, June 17.—After a comparatively quiet and featureless early session today's cotton morket became excited owing to rumors that indictments were to be asked for in the cotton pool case and there was a sensational break in the late trading which carried July cotton off to a net loss of about $1.50 per bale. Covering and a renewal of bull support caused a rally in the last few minutes and despite general nervousness the closing tone was steady at a net loss of only 6 to 20 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 2 to 9 points in response to lower Liverpool cables and scattered liquidation which was also inspired by the more favorable map. But the improvement in weather conditions was offset by a bullish private condition report placing the average condition of the crop at 80.8 per cent. against a condition of 80.4 per cent. reported by the same authority toward the end of last month, thus indicating an improvement of only fourtenths of one per cent. during the period between May 25th and June 10th. This undoubtedly was a surprise to recent sellers who had been operating in expectation of a bearish July bureau and caused enough covering to steady the market during the middle of the day, the more particularly as leading bulls bid for large blocks of July and August whenever the market showed any sign of weakness. In the last hour, however, rumors that indictments had been found against the bull leaders started general old crop liquidation as a result of which July cotton sold off to 13.81 and August 13.85, or 29 to 31 points net lower. The new crop sympathized to the extent of 10 to 11 points, but when it was seen that the bull leaders were giving the market active support at the decline shorts turned for cover causing a rally of about 10 points on old crop positions. Spinners takings for the week showed a considerable falling off as compared with last week, probably by reflecting increased curtailment in manufacturing circles, but the into-sight figures were small, and the visible supply of American decreased 111,000 bales against 152,000 last year.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 2,608 bales against 6,226 last week and 3,749 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 27,519 last week, and 35,785 last year.

Today's receipts at New Orleans 558 bales against 455 last year and at Houston 280 bales against 550 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 10 points lower; middling uplands 15.05; middling gulf 15.30. Sales 2,614 bales.

Futures opened and closed steady.

Marvelous Discoveries.

mark the wonderful progress of the age. Air flights on heavy machines, telegrams without wires, terrible war inventions to kill men, and that wonder of wonders—Dr. King's New Discovery—to save life when threatened by coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis, hemorrhage, hay fever and whooping cough or lung trouble. For all bronchial affections it has no equal. It relieves instantly. Its the surest cure. James M. Black, of Asheville, N. C., R. R. REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Prices Have Given Way to a More Favorable Crop Outlook—Speculation Has Lagged—Crops Reports Decidedly Better.

New York, June 17.—Prices have given way owing to what many regard as a more favorable crop outlook to say nothing of the spread of the curtailment policy among the mills of this country and liquidation by local Southern and Western houses. To many it looks as though the high cost of liying to say nothing of the present relative high prices of cotton were offsetting the strong statistical position at home and abroad.

Even Liverpool is beginning to halt and Manchester complains. Spot sales at Liverpool of late have dropped to 5,000 bales in a day and Manchester reports that business is less active. Reports from the South including some from New Orleans insist that the condition of the crop west of the Mississippi river is decidedly better than it was a year ago and the concensus is that there will be a material increase in the acreage in that section. The spot markets at the South are said to be quiet.

Speculation has lagged. If bears have not been unduly aggressive the outside public has touched the market gingerly. Bulls have given determined support when the market seemed to need it most and from time to time Wall street shorts and others have deemed it prudent to cover. Heavy rains have prevailed in Georgia and the Carolinas, where clear weather is apparently much needed. There have been some complaints, too, of damage by weevil in Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi. Moreover there has been a rapid decrease in the certificated stock at New York. Cotton has been steadily shipped out to Europe and some recent large holders now own no cotton here. Liverpool and Philadelphia have been buying. Bulls maintain that the statistical position is too strong, that is effect must become apparent in the near future. Canadians insisted, too, that a very large short interest remains uncovered in the July option. No large quantity of new cotton will be available, it is contended, for this country, before October 1st or for Europe before October 15th, and there are those who believe that the pinch of scarcity may be severely felt before those dates at home and abroad. Today prices declined, especially on the old crop months, mainly owing to reports that leading bulls should be indicted. This led to heavy general selling.

A Woman's Great Idea

is how to make herself attractive. But, without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c. at Robert R. Bellamy's.

UNUSUALLY DULL FOR STOCKS

Smallest Day's Business on Stock Market in Nearly Two Years—New Railroad Law Cause. Bond Business Good.

New York, June 17.—Dealings in the stock market in the usual active first hour fell below a hundred thousand shares, the second hour's business cointracted to one-fourth of that amount and that meagre figure shrank by one-third again during the noon. The aggregate for the day was less than 200,000 shares, the smallest day's business for nearly two years.

The gloomy, oppressive weather was held hardly responsible. The approaching enactment of the railroad law was cited as another oppressive. The home-coming of ex-President Roosevelt was another subject discussed as helping to hold up stock market activity.

The strength shown by the coppers was influenced directly by the reports of encouragement abroad over the course of that trade, and also by the requirements of a short interest among foreigners in copper mining shares.

Money conditions excited only languid interest in view of the stagnant condition of the stock market. Preliminary estimates of the week's currency movement promised another substantial increase in New York banking cash, sub-treasury operations for the week contributing to the showing.

The belief that indictments were imminent against leaders of the cotton pool caused some reflected anxiety in the stock market.

Business in bonds was rather better than in stocks, but there was no marked revival and the price movement was ragged and irregular. Total sales par value $943,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today 179,100 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, June 17.—Belief that the spring wheat crop is facing the most serious condition since the black rust year clutched many speculators today. Light showers and promise of more did not greatly alter the conviction of the majority. Fine harvest weather in the winter wheat section received little notice and neitther did the fact that Kansas and Nebraska are expected to produce more than was thought possible three months ago. The market closed 7-8 to 1 1-8 to 1 1-4c higher than last night's figures. Corn finished 3-8c to 1-2 to 1-2c up and oats 3-8 to 1-2 to 5-8c. Last prices for provisions were 5c higher to 10c lower.

OUTLOOK FOR TRADE.

Bradstreet Gives Better Crop and Trade Reports.

New York, June 14.—Bradstreets tomorrow will say: Irregularity and relative quiet are still the ruling features in trade and industry. Warmer weather is the key to the better crop and trade reports received this week from the West, Northwest and Southwest, while cool, moist conditions along the Atlantic coast, now disappearing, have been a bar to trade and crop developments in the East.

Short time is evidenced in almost all lines of textiles, cotton goods still reflecting the stress of high prices for raw material and arrested demand for goods. The percentage of idle looms and spindles ranges from 25 per cent. upward. Short time is also witnessed in woolen goods manufacture. In pig iron, production still outruns consumption and prices are weak. Fnished lines show effects of restricted buying based on hopes of lowered costs. Despite reports of lessened improvement work and the laying off of men by important railroads, there are evidences of moderately good buying of cars and other rolling stock. The leather and shoe trades are somewhat quiet, past poor weather conditions being reflected threin.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending with June 16th were 178 against 189 last week and 213 in the like week of 1909.

Cotton Opened With Easier Tendency. Crop Outlook Favorable.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, June 17.—The market opened with an easier tendency on local business and slight interest with a good weather map and no disposition to anticipate any immediate improvement although holders of old crop positions remained confident and unconcerned. After a listless forenoon market came a sharp decline in July and August deliveries on some news report of litigation-to-be which after the first drop, found sufficient supporting orders to rally prices somewhat at the close. Traders are much at sea over the outlook anticipating a shortage of cotton in August but with the situation well in hand by the operators who so far have shown their ability to maintain their position, it is difficult to forecast the immediate future under the conditions. New crops held well on the decline. The egneral crop outlook is favorable.

VISIBLE SUPPLY COTTON.

Hester's Statement Shows 2,700,790 Bales for Crop Year.

New Orleans, June 17.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, issued today shows the total visible to be 2,700,790 bales against 2,834,541 last week and 3,466,906 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 1,588,790 bales against 1,707,541 last week and 2,616,907 last year and of all other kinds including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc. 1,112,000 against 1,127,000 last week and 850,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and Continental Europe 1,368,000 against 2,266,000 last year; in Egypt 87,000 against 131,000 last year; in India 708,000 against 426,000 last year; and in the United States 533,000 against 644,000 last year.

er and had no use for such cotton other than to sell it."

There is appended to the indictment what purports to be an agreement between Browne and Hayne as parties of the first part and certain spinners as parties of the second part through the medium of which it is alleged cotton was illegally cornered. The contract, signed in New York on February 20th, 1910, and amended on March 7, 1910, says among other things:

"The said parties of the second part hereby subscribe for, and authorize the parties of the first part to buy for their account, contracts on the New York Cotton Exchange for the future delivery of the number of bales set opposite their respective names. Said cotton to be purchased for delivery in the months of March, April, May, June or July, 1910, or divided among two or more of those months, in the discretion of the parties of the first part and the committee hereinafter set out.

"The said parties of the first part subscribe for, on their own account and such others as they may associate with themselves in the execution of this contract, contracts upon the New York Cotton Exchange for an equal number of bales of cotton as subscribed for by the parties of the second part, also to be delivered in the months of March, April, May, June and July, 1910, as aforesaid:

"The said parties of the first part agree to buy jointly said contracts for account of the parties of the second part and the parties of the second part and to deliver said contracts purchased on account of the parties of the second part to the brokers of the parties of the second part, as by them designated.

"As said purchases are made the same shall be apportioned between the parties hereto, one half thereof to the parties of the first part and one-half thereof to the parties of the second part, each of whom shall take care of said purchases on contract as provided herein.

"Each of the subscribers agrees to protect and finance his contracts until the delivery of the cotton therein and upon the tender of the cotton upon said contracts at their maturity agrees to receive and pay for all the cotton tendered on his contracts.

"It is further agreed by such subscriber that all cotton so tendered and received by the parties of the first and second parts shall be by him shipped out of New York City; the parties of the first part to ship as soon as practicable, and each party of the second part at once, and each of said parties agree that none of said cotton be received shall be tendered on either the New York, New Orleans or Liverpool cotton exchanges prior to November 1, 1910. And all parties hereto agree that any spot cotton now owned or hereafter purchased by either, whether expressly or otherwise embraced in this contract or not shall not be tendered on either of said exchanges before November 1, 1910.

"This contract contemplates the actual delivery and acceptance of the cotton specified and to eliminate any speculative feature, it is agreed by all parties that none of said contracts shall be sold, but that the same shall be held and financed until the cotton is tendered.

"This contract is to be binding when signed by the parties of the first part and the parties of the second part subscribing for 300,000 bales of cotton; that is to say, 150,000 bales each for the parties of the first and second parts.

"When this contract becomes binding and effective, as aforesaid, the parties of the first part may commence to buy the contracts herein agreed upon for both parties and may continue to buy in such amounts and at such times as they deem best, provided no cotton shall be bought at a price in excess of 15 cents per pound. In the event the price of such contracts for cotton advances higher than 15 cents per pound before the total amounts herein subscribed for are bought then no further amounts shall be bought until the price of such contracts falls to 15 cents or less, whereupon the parties of the first part may commence buying on account of the subscription herein, and may continue to buy whenever said price is 15 cents or less until the total amount herein subscribed for is purchased."

Because of failure to obtain the 300,000 bales specified the foregoing was subsequently amended to call for a total of only 150,000 bales, 75,000 for each of the parties. Hayne and Brown, however, agreed to pay for an additional 75,000 bales or any part thereof after the required 150,000 bales had been supplied.

Patten's name does not figure in the contract at all, although he was popularly credited with being the chief leader in the bull movement. It is authoritatively estimated that the bull leaders during the progress of their campaign handled nearly 400,000 bales of cotton representing a value of approximately $30,000,000.

Arthur R. Marsh, professor of the New York Exchange, issued a statement tonight in which he said he had received a communication from the United States Attorney General saying that the proceedings were directed merely to prevent corners and were not aimed at regular business transactions upon the cotton exchange. "This statement," says Mr. Marsh, "makes it perfectly clear that members of the New York Cotton Exchange and their customers, who are using contracts for the future delivery of cotton made on the exchange in the ordinary course of their business need not feel the slightest alarm with regard to the validity of these transactions. The New York Cotton Exchange as an exchange, has no interest or concern in the case at issue."

James A. Patten, who is named in the indictment, has been known for years as a corn and wheat speculator and more latterly as the "cotton king." Frank B. Hayne and William P. Brown are well known cotton operators of New Orleans, and Eugene B. Scales is a leader in the same line in Texas.

The other indicted men are New Yorkers, Robert M. Thompson is the most prominent of these. He is a special partner in the brokerage firm of S. H. P. Fell & Co., and a well known financier. Kittle is also a member of the same firm and came into notice recently when he refused to testify before the Federal grand jury in the inquiry which resulted in the return of the indictment.

The So-called "Cotton Pool."

Washington, June 17.—Attorney General Wickersham in commenting on the indictments returned today by the New York special Federal grand jury against James A. Patten, Morris H. Rothchild, F. B. Hayne, William P. Browne, Eugene G. Scales, Sydney J. Harmon and Robert M. Thompson growing out of the so-caled "cotton pool" said that the investigation which was held had satisfied the grand jury of the existence of the combination and of its questionable characteristics. In regard to the indictments the following statement was given out tonight by the Department of Justice:

"These indictments are the result of an investigation commenced by the Department of Justice some time since based upon information that the persons indicted with others had, in the early part of the year, formed a combination for the purpose of cornering the entire remaining supply of raw cotton of the crop of 1909 and to hold a substantial portion of the same under agreement not to make tenders in certain markets prior to about November 1, 1910, thus creating an artificial shortage in addition to the crop shortage in the supply available for the spinners and making it possible to require them to purchase thereafter at an arbitrary price fixed by the pool.

"At the same time agreements were said to have been entered into between representatives of the pool and a number of spinners whereby the latter agreed to join the conspiracy to the extent of purchases of several thousand bales of cotton to be removed from the market. Pursuant to this agreement the pool acquired about 350,000 bales of raw cotton for delivery in May, which, with a large amount already on hand, was to be lifted out of the three principal markets of the world. This complete control of the May market with the further purchase of several hundred thousand bales of the remaining supply for delivery in July and August was intended to complete the monopoly of the remainder of the crop.

"As the facts were presented to the department, this appeared to be a typical instance of a combination for the purpose of forestalling the market, securing the entire visible supply of a raw commodity during a period of months and securing the power to dictate the price to the consumer. And, as bearing upon the larger question to which so much public attention has been directed, of the high cost of living, was considered by the department as requiring thorough investigation.

"This investigation has resulted in satisfying the grand jury of the existence of the combination and of its criminal characteristics and the indictments have followed.

"It is not to be understood that this prosecution involves any question as to the propriety of the question of dealings in exchanges at all. It deals with a specific case of a definite combination for an avowed and ascertained purpose and that purpose one condemned by the act of Congress, namely, to restrain and monopolize interstate trade and commerce in a commodity, the free and unrestricted use of which is of prime importance to the whole Nation."

The following statement was issued tonight in behalf of Patten:

Mr. Patten was no party to any of these spinners contracts; he knew nothing about them and took no part or participation in them, directly or indirectly. Mr. Patten being a man of high standing in his own community, hated very much to be indicted, notwithstanding the fact that there might be no foundation for it, but now that it is done there is nothing for us to do except to have the Federal courts determine whether anything has been done by him, directly or indirectly, that is legally or morally culpable.

would doubt like the devil if they were going to heaven," retorted Mr. Rucker.

Mr. Sherley, Democrat of Kentucky, offered an impassioned plea favoring the rule, declaring that it was the most important step for the material advancement of the interests of the House that had been taken. It would, he said, enforce the presence of members upon the floor of the House and do away with the large amount of absenteism that had prevailed in the past.

Mr. Murdock, of Kansas, uncompromising insurgent, declared that the new rule would prevent absenteism, would do away with the practice of pigeonholing proposed legislation and would take from the Speaker the arbitrary right of recognizing members on suspension day.

Representative Norris, of Nebraska, said the new rule did not go far enough to suit him. Step by step he said, power had been taken from the Speaker, and now another step in the same direction was being taken.

The previous question being demanded a rising vote showed practically every member upon his feet.

Speaker Cannon attempted to count the members standing but made only a few strokes of the handle of his gavel toward them when in apparent despair, and amid laughter, he announced that 20 members voted in the affirmative, and later announced "one in the negative." This was Representative Rucker, of Missouri. The House then adjourned.

Will Go to Maxton.

Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer: Mr. W. O. Bennett, Jr., of Wadesboro, has been appointed manager of the Maxton branch of the Elba Manufacturing Company of Charlotte. The Elba people do not belong to the trust and the mill at Maxton, which is just being completed, is said to be the largest independent cotton oil mill in the Carolinas. The mill is constructed according to the most approved methods and is one of the most up-to-date plants in the entire South. Mr. Bennett will take charge of the plant July 1st. He expects, however, to keep thoroughly in touch with his friends in this section, and they will doubtless hear from him next Fall when the market for cotton seed opens."

FACTS and FIGURES
Do Not Lie

45 per cent. increase in the number of prescriptions filled in the past year over the previous year does not mean necessarily that the amount of sickness has increased in Wilmington, but it does mean that

THE PRESCRIPTION BUSINESS IS COMING OUR WAY.

It means that only the best material is used in our prescription work and we use only what the doctor orders, and you and your doctor recognize the fact that each prescription brought to our store is accurately prepared and packages are promptly delivered, except in rare instances when delay is unavoidable.

N. B.—Bring your prescriptions to us or get your doctor to phone them in and they will be promptly attended to.
